Gov. Shumlin and Partner Katie Hunt Marry

EAST MONTPELIER- Gov. Peter Shumlin and his longtime partner, Katie Hunt were married last night at a small ceremony at their home in East Montpelier, Vermont.

The couple were married by the Governor's sister-in-law, Evie Lovett. Attending the ceremony were the Governor's two daughters, Olivia and Becca, as well as the Governor's brother, Jeff Shumlin.

The Governor and Vermont's first lady stated:

"We are so fortunate to have such a beautiful partnership and to be able to spend the rest of our lives together."

Hunt and Shumlin were engaged in June. The couple plan to live in Southern Vermont, where they both grew up, following the completion of the Governor's third term in office.
