Jessica,

Thanks for talking with me today about this appointment. Attached you will find my completed application.

I did reach out to a few people involved in the Vermont Humane Federation who would be superb nominees. It is my understanding that Erika Holm, Director of Operations at the Central VT Humane Society, and Annie Guion, Executive Director of the Windham County Humane Society, both sent you their applications today. Heidi Edmunds, Executive Director at Lucy Mackenzie Humane Society, is also interested and may send you her application in the morning. I know all of these individuals well and each has years of experience dealing directly with animal cruelty cases in Vermont. I believe any one of them would do an exceptional job of working in a collaborative way to represent the interests of animal welfare organizations on the Board.

Please let me know if you need any information or if I can be helpful in any way.

All the best,

Barry Londeree

Hi Barry,

I'm working from home until about 10:30 - so anytime before that! I'll be on the road with the governor after that for the rest of the day.

Talk soon,

JV

Jessica,

Apologize for not getting back to you today. I've been traveling or in meetings all afternoon. I'd be happy to talk with you about this and can give you a call in the morning. Let me know if there is a time that is best for you.

Thanks,

Hi Barry,

We are putting together the new established Animal Cruelty Advisory Board, and your name was recommended by the Governor and a few individuals who were involved with the bill to serve as an appointee. Can you give me a call? 802-343-3164 (cell)

Thanks!

-jg
