FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Milne Travel American Express announces Red Sox Post Season Schedule for League Championship and World Series

Barre, VT – October 3, 2013- Lynn Howard , manager of Milne Travel American Express's tour division, and Milne president Scott Milne announced that Milne Travel will again be offering 55 Right Field Box 3 seats to each of the Post Season games at Fenway Park this year. Milne's offer includes motor coach travel from South Burlington and Berlin, Vt., and West Lebanon or Manchester, N.H., right to Fenway Park and back. Sales are open for the League Championship and World Series today.

"Many of us in New England grow up with Red Sox stories occupying a sort of holy place in our family ies histories" according to Lynn Howard. "We have the recollections of grandmothers telling us about getting into Fenway for a nickel and seeing The Babe pitch way back or of Ted Williams, maybe seeing Carlton Fisk wave the ball inside the foul pole in '75, or the memory of the Buckner bobble in '86. Well, - it's another post season, and here's your chance to be at Fenway while the memories are made".

League Championship seats with the coach start at $300 per person, and World Series seats start at $600 pp.

Should a game not need to be played Milne clients will receive a full refund.

"We are looking forward to good run for the Sox, and a lot of fun" "according to Milne. "We even have Vermont Lt. Governor Phil Scott set to tour direct Game One game 1 of the World Series as part of his Vermont Everyday Jobs initiative to promote Vermont businesses and highlight the hard work that Vermonters do every day ".

If you would like to reserve seats call your local Milne Travel office or email tours@milnetravel.com.

Milne Travel is a Vermont business with offices and nearly 100 travel professionals working in seven states, and two countries. Milne is the largest independent American Express Travel Agency in the Northeastern United States and one of the largest ticket holders at Fenway Park.
