Secretary Condos Appointed to Executive Committee for the Council of State Governments

Montpelier, VT – This week Secretary Condos was appointed to serve as a member on the Executive Committee for the Council of State Governments (CSG).

CSG, a national organization, was founded in 1933, and works to foster the exchange of insights and ideas to help state officials shape public policy. The Executive Committee and Leadership Council oversee the business affairs, policy and program development of CSG.

“I am excited to bring our Vermont brand of leadership to a national stage by serving on the CSG Executive Committee, and to support colleagues from across the country in developing common sense policies that move our country forward” said Secretary Condos. “I look forward to connecting with state officials and experts from across the country to share ideas and best practices that focus on people-centered policies here in Vermont and elsewhere.”

Secretary Condos represents the National Association of Secretaries of States as President-Elect.

The appointment takes effect immediately.
