How do you thank someone for all that they've done? I'm not sure, but I just wanted to send you this little note to tell you all that you have literally saved us!!! The stress and struggle of a furnace that I KNEW just couldn't last us another winter, the constant flooding in the basement year around making it unusable and doing laundry soggy and cold on my bare feet, the cold, cold breeze sweeping through the house all winter... My Goodness... I'm not even sure where to begin! You all have blessed me with the courage to not give up on my Grandparent's home... One that had been in disrepair for so long. I wasn't sure how I would ever do it and I considered moving out and leaving the home I loved so much as a child, and into my adulthood, behind to succumb to the disrepair it had become. To be able to feel the warmth from the furnace and the coziness from all the sealing has welcomed a freedom I haven't felt in so long. Walking into the basement and being able to see it dry... even by the bulkhead walkway!... It's just a dream. You all... I just hope you know how truly thankful I am... How grateful I feel for all the hard work that was put into my home... My home I can feel proud of like I always did as a child. I know my Grandpa is happy in Heaven too as he sees his home brought back to life. Thank you all so, so much! <3 Words cannot describe the gratitude I wish to express to you all. THANK YOU!!!

Sincerely,
