

Please register that I am against passage of these three bills. They represent the camel's nose under the tent. Legal analysts on the national networks are unanimous in their opinion that if passed they will not survive constitutional challenges. They will be challenged.

Respectfully submitted,

Sent from my iPhone