

USDA Disaster Foods PSA Campaign

Run Time: Mid-December through February 29, 2012

Script: 60 Seconds

Hi, I'm Governor Shumlin – and – I'm Lt. Governor Phil Scott

Lt. Gov: Were you affected by Tropical Storm Irene in any way?

If you lost food in your refrigerator or missed days of work-

Had to travel farther due to road closures or faced a flooded home after the storm-

We want you to know, there is free, quality food available for you-

There are no income guidelines-

Gov.:

Starting today through the end of February, selected food shelves around the state will have food available

For a list of locations visit www dot vtresponse dot com or dial two-one-one.

Please share this message with anyone who was affected by Irene

This food has been made available to Vermont through the United States Department of Agriculture, with the help of the Vermont Department for Children and Families and the Vermont Foodbank. For a list of locations where food is available, visit vtresponse.com or dial 2-1-1.
