Senator Norm McAllister
712 Hanna Road
Franklin, VT 05457

Dear Senator McAllister:

I am writing to acknowledge receipt of your message from your phone call to my State House office today. The content of the message was regarding your decision to continue serving in your current senatorial position and not resign from the Vermont Senate. I must say I am extremely disappointed, as I do not believe your continued service is in the best interests of your constituents, the Legislature, nor the Senate as an institution. I truly hope you will reconsider.

This letter serves as official notice the Committee on Committees has met to formally remove you from both the Committee on Agriculture and the Committee on Institutions, effective immediately.

Sincerely,

Lt. Governor Phil Scott
