Thank you all again, good to know. Yes, Gus is away right now but I will be in touch with him next week. Have a great weekend all,
Sarah

Unless Dale corrects me, it is not a problem for DHCD if revoked.

But checking with VHCB (Gus and Elizabeth Egan) makes perfect sense. I believe it continues to administer this program and regularly applies to and receives funding from HUD. It may need the authorization to remain if it hasn't been created elsewhere.

Hi Jen and Harry, I hope you both are having a good summer. I am drafting a "clean up" executive order that will revoke a number of old executive orders that are now obsolete. Obviously the below order is from Governor Dean so before our time, but I wanted to get your perspective as to whether it can be revoked at this point. I will also check with Gus Selig. If you have any concerns, just let me know. (And, if there are other old executive orders you are aware of that you would like revoked, let me know that too!) Thanks very much – no rush at all on this,
Sarah
