Mission

The mission of the State Ethics Commission is to promote, practice and maintain the highest level of ethical standards and accountability in state government. The Commission provides governmental ethics training to all public officials, accepts complaints of governmental misconduct, provides information to the public, and issues ethical guidance and advisory opinions by interpreting and applying state law, governmental codes of conduct, and the General Principles set forth in Section 1 of the State Code of Ethics.

Key Initiatives

Financial Disclosure Statements

In December 2017, the Ethics Commissioners drafted two financial disclosure forms – one for candidates; state senators or state representatives and another for statewide executive officers, state ethics commissioners, and the executive director of the state ethics commission. The forms were available for the January 15 filing deadline. First used in 2018 election season of the 316 primary candidates, 296 completed the financial disclosure form, which translates into a 94% compliance percentage.

General Principles of Governmental Ethical Conduct

The Vermont legislature as described in 3 V.S.A. § 1202 in Sect 7 vested the State Ethics Commission with the authority to adopt a State Code of Ethics pertaining to conflicts of interest that would interfere with the performance by a public official of their duty to work in the best interests of Vermont residents.

The General Principles of Governmental Ethical Conduct are modeled after the standards of ethical conduct for federal officers and employees. The Vermont State General Principles of Ethical Conduct were adopted on June 6, 2018.

Complaints of Ethical Misconduct

The Vermont State Ethics Commission is responsible for accepting, reviewing, and tracking complaints about governmental conduct. If a complaint alleges a violation of governmental conduct regulated by law, or of the Department of Human Resources Ethics Policies, the State Campaign Finance law set forth in 17 V.S.A. Chapter 61, the commission will refer the complaint to the appropriate state agency.

In 2018 the Commission received 36 complaints. The complaints addressed state executives, legislators, municipal employees, and employees of state agencies. Topics ranged from Official Duties or Responsibilities, Campaign/Political Activity, Financial or Business Transactions, and Employment to Use of Government Property and Resources.

Ethics Guidance

Pursuant to 3 V.S.A. §1225 the Executive Director of the Ethics Commission may issue guidance on any issue related to governmental ethics to a statewide officer or state employee upon request. The Executive Director may consult with Ethics Commission members and the Department of Human Resources in preparing the guidance. Guidance is exempt from public inspection and copying under the Public Records Act and is confidential unless the recipient chooses to publically disclose it.

In the first 12 months, the Executive Director received 62 contacts from Statewide and local public officials and State employees requesting ethics guidance.

Ethics Advisory Opinions

Pursuant to 3 V.S.A. §1225 (b)(1)(2) The Executive Director may issue advisory opinions that provide general advice or interpretation regarding standards of governmental ethical conduct or any issue related to governmental ethics. Ethics advisory opinions may be initiated by a request or be issued by the Executive Director on an ethics issue that may have been the subject of recurring ethics guidance requests. The Executive Director may consult with members of the Ethics Commission and the Department of Human Resources in preparing these advisory opinions which will be posted on the Ethics Commission website.

In 2018, State Ethics Commission received one request for an ethics advisory opinion from an entity outside of State government that requested an interpretation and application of the State Ethics Code. Ethics advisory opinions are available on the State Ethics Commission website.

Governmental Ethics Training and Outreach

Pursuant to 3 V.S.A. § 1224, at least annually, in collaboration with the Department of Human Resources, the Commission shall make available to legislators, State officers, and State employees training on issues related to governmental ethics. The training shall include topics related to those covered in any guidance or advisory opinion issued under 3 V.S.A. § 1225.

The governmental ethics training program offered by the Ethics Commission is designed to provide both general and customized training on specific conflicts of interest risks that a legislator, public official or State employee may encounter related to their specific occupation and workplace.

On June 12, 2018, Commissioners presented a governmental ethics training at the Vermont Government Finance Officers Association (VGFOA) 2018 Summer Workshop and Annual Meeting held at the Vermont Technical College in Randolph.

The Commission was an exhibitor at the Vermont League of Cities and Towns Town Fair held in South Burlington on October 3 and 4, 2018. Commissioners and the Executive Director answered questions from VLCT members on conflicts of interest and other governmental ethics issues.

Ethics Commission Brochures and Posters

The Ethics Commission produced an information brochure with a State Ethics Code insert and a series of governmental ethics posters that have been distributed at public events and in mailings.

DHR- CAPS Training Collaborative

The Ethics Commission and the Vermont Department of Human Resources are collaborating on ethics training through the Center for Achievement in Public Service (CAPS). The proposed plan is that the Ethics Commission's Executive Director will provide governmental ethics training sessions as part of the CAPS workforce development services to State agencies and departments.

Website Development

The Ethics Commission website was developed and on-line in 2018, available on the website are financial disclosure forms, the State code of ethics, and ethics advisories. A governmental ethics training video addressing conflicts of interest for government employees will be available for viewing on the Ethics Commission website this month.

Policies and Procedures

In 2018, the Ethics Commission focused on drafting policies and procedures to guide the work of the Commission. The policies and procedures relate to three key operational areas namely, the procedure for handling complaints, ethics guidance and advisory opinions. Once finalized and adopted by the Commission, these policies and procedures will be available on the commission website in the coming months.

Summary

The Vermont State Ethics Commission is a valuable resource for elected officials and state employees to answer ethics and conflict of interest questions, provide ethics guidance and receive complaints.
