

Association of African Living in Vermont

Fostering Hope, Dignity and Independence in New Americans to Strengthen our Community

Presentation by : Yacouba Jacob Bogre,
Executive Director

Thato Ratsebe: Associate Director

What We'll Cover

- Who we are
- What we do
- Overview of our core services
- CRF Allocation expenditure
- CRF organizational impact
- How the needs were met
- Unmet needs/gaps in funding
- Questions

Overview of our core services

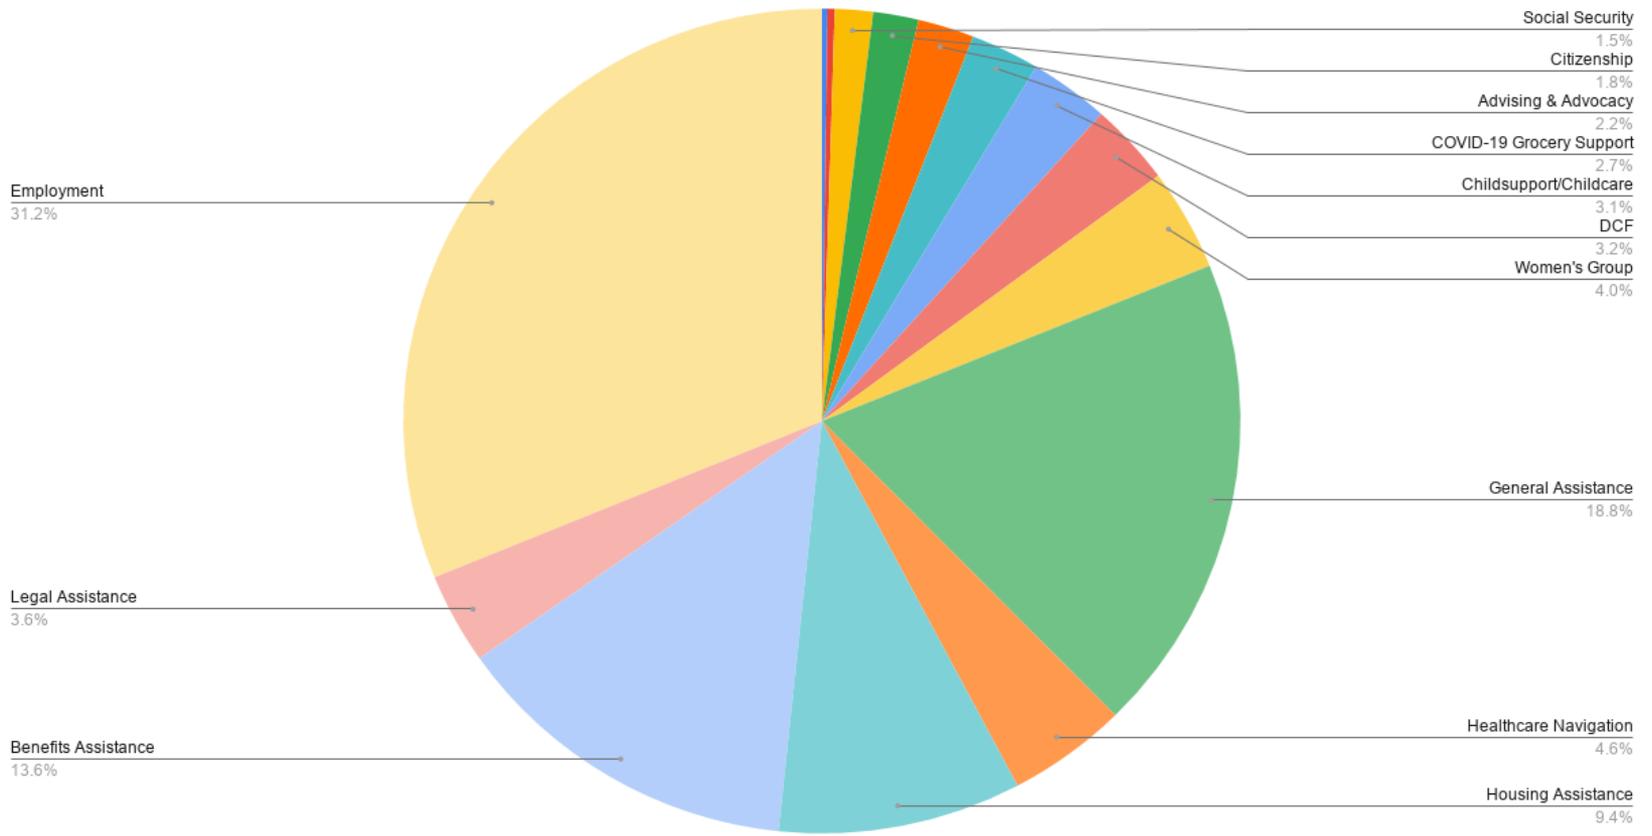

1. Wrap around Case management Services
 2. Interpreter and Translation Services
 3. Health and Behavior
 4. Legal Services
 5. Workforce Development
 6. New Farms for New Americans
 7. Youth Development Program
 8. Reach UP Case Management
-

Primary Service Area Provided | July 2020 - December 2020

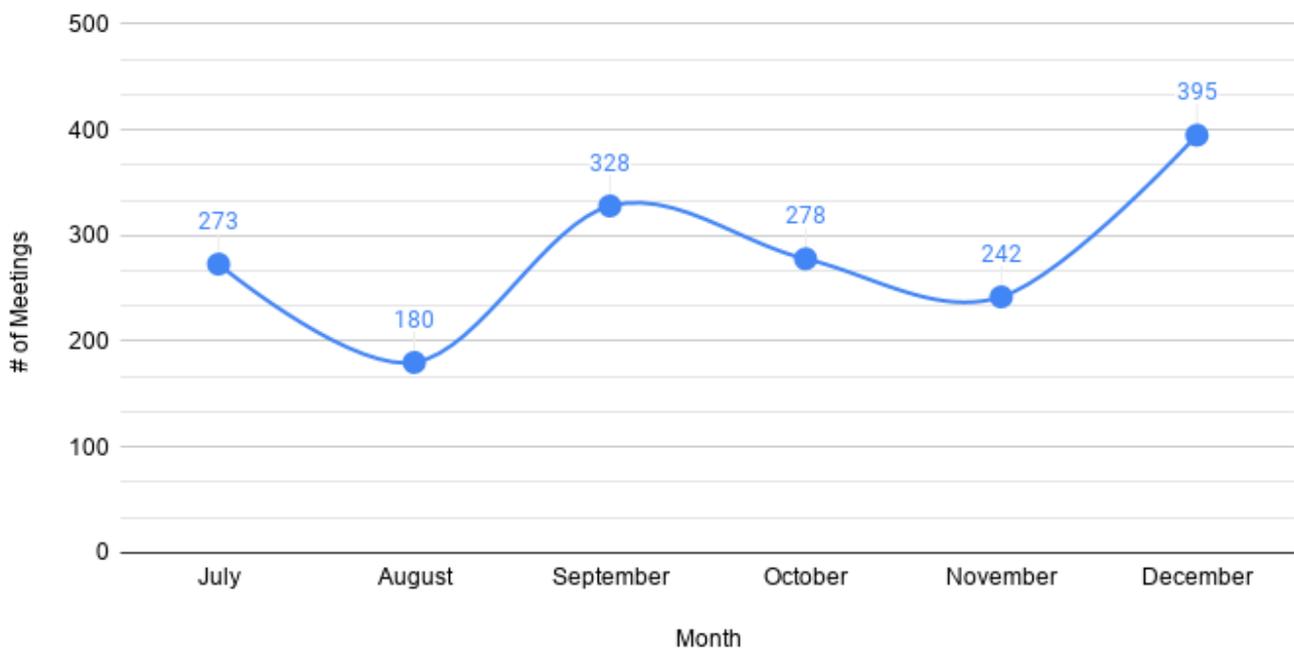

The results of this chart does not account for multiple services provided during each meeting, but shows the primary reason a client received AALV services in a single visit.

Meetings with Clients

Number of Meetings by Month | July 2020 - December 2020
AALV Case Managers met with clients a total of 1,696 times over a six month period

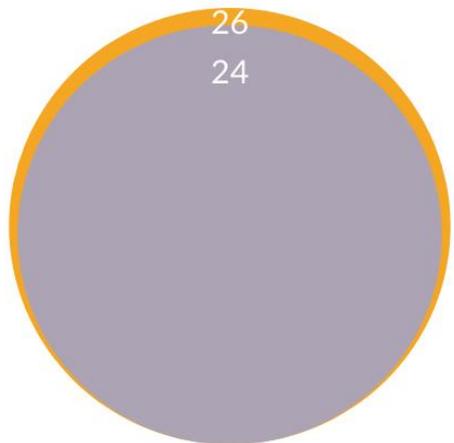

Other Notable Numbers

- 158 clients applied to VDOL for Unemployment Insurance
 - 74 clients applied to the Rental Housing Stabilization Program
 - 103 clients applied for the Utilities Assistance Program
 - 38 referrals to other agencies given
 - Between September 8th and December 18th, AALV was able to provide 882 boxes of food & home supplies to 84 different individuals & families in collaboration with our partners.
-

Employment Services July - September 2020

Of the 26 individuals who came to AALV seeking employment, 24 found a job at an average wage of $13.75/hr

- Clients Seeking Employment (52%)
- Clients Placed in Employment (48%)

Employment Services October - December 2020

Of the 52 individuals who came to AALV seeking employment, 42 found a job at an average wage of $12.75/hr

- Clients Seeking Employment (55.32%)
- Clients Placed in Employment (44.68%)

Questions

