

Prior to assuming the position as Deputy Director Ross was the Division Chief for Policy and Planning and worked with DEMHS as an emergency management consultant assisting in the implementation of the Local Emergency Management Director Program as well as assisting in regional and local hazard mitigation planning. As the deputy, he oversees preparedness activities including exercise coordination for all hazards and planning activities including those related to the State Emergency Operations Plan and the State Hazard Mitigation Plan. Additionally he provides and coordinates support to local and regional planning efforts and initiatives.

Deputy Director

Vermont Department of Public Safety, Division of Emergency Management & Homeland Security
November 2012 – Present

Deputy Director

Vermont Department of Public Safety, Emergency Management Division (Waterbury, VT)
January 2003 – November 2012

and the contributions you have made as an emergency management consultant under the Division of Emergency Management & Homeland Security have without any doubt of certainty protected the lives of Vermonters, especially during the chaos that ensued in the wake of Hurricane Irene.