Beth,

Well, I couldn't let you leave for the Supreme Court without making one final information / records request. I'll try to keep it brief. See below.

Congrats on the appointment by the way.

Cheers,

Shay Totten

Beth Robinson, Counsel to the Governor
Office of Gov. Peter Shumlin
State of Vermont
109 State Street
Montpelier, VT 05602

October 27, 2011

Dear Ms. Robinson:

In accordance with Vermont law 1 VSA §§ 315-320, I request that the following information be provided to me within the timeframe ascribed by Statute:

- A copy of any consultancy contract or contractual agreement between Larry Cassidy and the State of Vermont regarding his work on behalf of Gov. Peter Shumlin.
- Copies of all correspondence, electronic and otherwise, between Larry Cassidy and Gov. Peter Shumlin and other staff at the Executive Office and the Agency of Human Service as it pertains to the Brattleboro Retreat

- Copies of all reports, memos or analysis provided to the governor and his staff by Mr. Cassidy in his role as a consultant to the governor since the governor took office.

If you are not the custodian of these records, please forward this request to that individual, and identify that individual so I can follow-up with them directly.

For all information you withhold which falls under the purview of this request, please describe the nature of that information and the statutory basis for which you are denying access.

Please let me know when this information would be available to review. If this information can be made available in electronic format, thereby avoiding the time and waste of creating paper copies, I would request the information be provided in such manner.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact me directly at (802) 324-3198.

Sincerely,
Shay Totten
