

House resolution authorizing remote participation in House sessions and committees under restricted, COVID-related circumstances through the remainder of 2022

Offered by: [TBD]

Whereas, 2022, H.R. 17 authorized through Tuesday, March 8, 2022 the ability of a House member to participate remotely in House sessions and House committees if the member had “symptomatic illness or direct COVID-19 related circumstances,” and

Whereas, the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic continues to pose a risk to the health and safety of House members, legislative staff, and members of the public, and

Whereas, the House of Representatives wants to ensure a safe process in returning to in-person legislating and to allow remote member participation if a member is specifically impacted by COVID-19, now therefore be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives:

That the House of Representatives and House committees shall continue to operate in a hybrid manner, provided that a member may only debate and vote remotely in a House session or House committee if the member notifies the Speaker of the House in the case of a House session, and the Speaker of the House and the member’s committee chair in the case of a House committee, that the member meets one of the following conditions:

(1) the member has tested positive for COVID-19 and is within a required period of isolation;

(2) the member has been exposed to COVID-19 as a close contact and is within a required term of quarantine;

(3) the member has COVID-19 symptoms and is awaiting the results of a PCR test; or

(4) the member has a family member who relies on the member for caregiving and the family member is required to be home due to one of the reasons set forth in subdivisions (1)-(3) of this Resolved Clause or because their daycare or school program has a short-term closure due to COVID-19, and be it further

Resolved: That the required time periods and testing described in the preceding Resolved Clause are those provided by Vermont Department of Health guidelines, including any revisions or updates, and be it further

Resolved: That the Committee on Rules is authorized to meet remotely as necessary to address COVID-19-related matters that may impact the operation of the House and its committees, and be it further

Resolved: That the hybrid and remote authority set forth in this resolution shall remain in effect through the remainder of 2022.
