Greg,

Please find the email below from Sarah London. We have posted the documents to Dropbox instead of sending out a thumb drive.

Thank you,
Jessica

At the link below, please find access to the portions of the Governor's daily calendar that have previously been produced in response to a public record act request. Please be aware that the below production contains terms that are covered by the Attorney General's Office litigation hold notice. Nevertheless, we have been advised that because these records have previously been produced in response to a request, they do not need to be withheld at this time under the relevant to litigation hold exemption, 317(c)(14). In the event you wish to request additional days of the Governor's daily calendar, please be aware we will need to review calendar appointments since May 2012 that contain terms covered by the litigation hold notice with the Attorney General's Office.

We hope the above information is helpful to you,
