

From: MacLean, Alex
Sent: Thursday, August 16, 2012 8:17 AM
To: Berry, Patrick
Subject: Fwd: Martin's Pond Petition

This is going to get bigger. Gov not happy. Let's connect later today.

Sent from my iPhone

Begin forwarded message:

From: Jane Kitchel <jane45@hotmail.com>
Date: August 16, 2012 8:11:40 AM EDT
To: "MacLean, Alex" <Alex.MacLean@state.vt.us>
Subject: FW: Martin's Pond Petition

Alex,

FYI. I will have the petition directed to Pat Berry at ANR. This is difficult to defend. Did it have to be a fine rather than a warning if the woman was technically in violation? It seems like the heavy hand of the state.

Jane

> From: dna62@fairpoint.net
> To: jane45@hotmail.com
> Subject: Martin's Pond Petition
> Date: Wed, 15 Aug 2012 08:57:51 -0400
>
> Dear Senator Kitchel,
>
> Barry lawson recommended that I contact you as to whom I should see at > the Department of Fish and Wildlife with a petition signed by 60
> Peacham residents protesting the > $156 fine given to a woman for sunbathing at Martin's Pond access this > past July 14th. For over 46 years or more, a small number of people > have been swimming there as children and adults without incident.
>
> Any comments or strategies as to how to proceed would be appreciated.
>
> Sincerely,
> Deanne Alex (resident for almost 36 years near Martin's Pond)
>