

Please be advised that any change to the 2nd amendment without 3/4th of the congress and 2/3rds of the states approving of said action is unconstitutional. It never ceases to amaze me how people do not understand the Bill of Rights and the constitution.

George W. Hall