No that does not work. We already told Howard that the causeway would go back the way it was.

Hi Alex. I spoke to Patrick today about Howard and the causeway. He reminded me that James is equally irrational when it comes to the causeway so we need to be prepared for significant blow-back when go back on our decision to shorten it. I suggested that he have a conversation with Chapin Spencer, the Loco Motion executive director and see whether he feels like he can talk with Howard. He was fine with shortening the causeway and he does not want another big blow up with James and LCI. Sound good? It may not work- but it seemed to me to be worth a shot. Deb
