

Vermont Planners Association (VPA)

A non-profit advocacy and educational organization with nearly 200 planners and related professionals, including municipal and regional planners, state agency staff, and private land use consultants.

Dedicated to the advancement of community planning in Vermont at the local, regional, and state levels.

Working to foster vibrant communities and a healthy environment.

We coordinate with other groups involved in planning policy such as VAPDA (VT Association of Planning & Development Agencies), VLCT (VT League of Cities and Towns and ACCD (Agency of Commerce and Community Development).

VPA serves as the Vermont section in the Northern New England Chapter of the American Planning Association (APA).
