Dear Pavin:

I would like to congratulate you on your stunning accomplishment of passing 2,000 points in your basketball career. Not only have you joined an elite group that includes only six other young Vermont men, but you've done so in the manner of a true sportsman. You clearly respect the team nature of basketball, and your willingness to pass the ball rather than go for the shot only makes your achievement that much more impressive. You don't seek out glory; that, in my mind, is one of the signs of a true leader.

I commend you on all of your hard work and dedication, and I wish you all the best in college and in your future! I am just one of many people who can't wait to see what you do next.

Best regards,

Phil Scott
