

Please note our opposition to the proposed change in the law that would transfer probate appeals from the civil division to the Supreme Court. Probate matters need the extra stop before they get to the Supreme Court. The current appeal process works and should not be changed.

M. Kate Thomas | A Member of the Firm
Lorentz, Lorentz & Harnett