1        (b) A person has notice of a fact if the person:

2            (1) has received a notification of the fact;

3            (2) has reason to know of the fact from all of the facts known to the 4 person at the time in question; or

5            (3) is deemed to have notice of the fact under subsection (d) of this 6 section.

7        (c) A person notifies or gives a notification of a fact to another by taking 8 steps reasonably required to inform the other person in the ordinary course, 9 whether or not they cause the other person to know the fact.

10        (d) In the case of a limited liability company's dissolution, termination, or 11 merger or conversion, a person who is not a member of the company is deemed 12 to have notice as follows:

6           § 4003. EFFECT OF OPERATING AGREEMENT; NONWAIVABLE

7                   PROVISIONS

8           (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, an 9           operating agreement regulates the affairs of the company and the conduct of its 10           business and governs relations among the members, among the managers, and 11           among the members, managers, and the limited liability company. To the 12           extent the operating agreement does not otherwise provide, this chapter 13           regulates the affairs of the company, the conduct of its business, and governs 14           relations among the members, among the managers, and among members, 15           managers, and the limited liability company.

16           (b) An operating agreement may not:

17                   (1) vary a limited liability company’s capacity under subsection 4011(e)
18                   of this title to sue and be sued in its own name;

19                   (2) except as provided in subchapter 8 of this chapter, vary the law 20                   applicable under subsection 4011(g) of this title;

21                   (3) vary the power of the court under section 4040 of this title;

1           (4) subject to subsections (c) through (f) of this section, eliminate or 2           restrict the duty of loyalty, the duty of care, or any other fiduciary duty;

3           (5) subject to subsections (c) through (f) of this section, eliminate or 4           restrict the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing under 5           subsection 4059(d) of this title;

6           (6) unreasonably restrict the duties and rights with respect to books, 7           records, and other information stated in section 4058 of this title, but the 8           operating agreement may impose reasonable restrictions on the availability and 9           use of information obtained under that section and may define appropriate 10          remedies, including liquidated damages, or a breach of any reasonable 11          restriction on use;

12          (7) vary the power of a court to decree dissolution in the circumstances
13          specified in subdivision 4101(4) of this title;

14          (8) vary the requirement to wind up a limited liability company's 15          business as specified in section 4102 of this title;

16          (9) unreasonably restrict the right of a member to maintain an action
17          under subchapter 9 of this chapter;

18          (10) restrict the right to approve a merger, conversion, or domestication
19          under section 4152 of this title to a member that will have personal liability 20          with respect to a surviving, converted, or domesticated organization; or

1           (11) restrict the rights under this title of a person other than a member,
2           manager, or transferee of any interest in a limited liability company.

3           (c) Unless unreasonable, the operating agreement may:

4           (1) restrict the duty:

5           (A) as required in subdivision 4059(b)(1) and subsection 4059(h) of 6           this title, to account to the limited liability company and to hold as trustee for it 7           any property, profit, or benefit derived by the member in the conduct or 8           winding up of the company's business, from a use by the member of the 9           company's property, or from the appropriation of a limited liability company 10           opportunity;

11           (B) as required in subdivision 4059(b)(3) and subsection 4059(h) of 12           this title, to refrain from dealing with the company in the conduct or winding
13           up of the company's business as or on behalf of a party having an interest
14           adverse to the company; and

15           (C) as required in subdivision 4059(b)(3) and subsection 4059(h) of 16           this title, to refrain from competing with the company in the conduct of the 17           company's business before the dissolution of the company;

18           (2) identify the specific types or categories of activities that do not 19           violate the duty of loyalty;

20           (3) alter the duty of care, except to authorize intentional misconduct or 21           knowing violation of law;

1           (4) alter any other fiduciary duty, including eliminating particular 2           aspects of that duty; and

3           (5) prescribe the standards by which to measure the performance of the 4           contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing under subsection 4059(d)
5           of this title.

6           (d) The operating agreement may specify the method by which a specific 7           act or transaction that would otherwise violate the duty of loyalty may be 8           authorized or ratified by one or more disinterested and independent persons 9           after full disclosure of all material facts.

10          (e) To the extent the operating agreement of a member-managed limited 11          liability company expressly relieves a member of a responsibility that the 12          member would otherwise have under this chapter and imposes the 13          responsibility on one or more other members, the operating agreement may, to 14          the benefit of the member that the operating agreement relieves of the 15          responsibility, also eliminate or limit any fiduciary duty that would have 16          pertained to the responsibility.

17          (f) The operating agreement may alter or eliminate the indemnification for 18          a member or manager provided by section 4060 of this title and may eliminate 19          or limit a member or manager's liability to the limited liability company and 20          members for money damages, except for:

21                (1) breach of the duty of loyalty;

1           (2) a financial benefit received by the member or manager to which the 2           member or manager is not entitled;

3           (3) a breach of a duty under subsection 4059(d) of this title;

4           (4) intentional infliction of harm on the company or a member; or 5           (5) an intentional violation of criminal law.

6           (g)(1) The court shall decide any claim under subsection (c) of this section 7           that a term of an operating agreement is manifestly unreasonable.

8           (2) The court:

9           (A) shall make its determination as of the time the challenged term
10           became part of the operating agreement and by considering only circumstances 11           existing at that time; and

12           (B) may invalidate the term only if, in light of the purposes and 13           activities of the limited liability company, it is readily apparent that:

14           (i) the objective of the term is unreasonable; or 15           (ii) the term is an unreasonable means to achieve the provision's 16           objective.

17           (h) A limited liability company is bound by and may enforce the operating 18           agreement, whether or not the company has itself manifested assent to the 19           operating agreement.

20           (i) A person that becomes a member of a limited liability company is 21           deemed to assent to the operating agreement.

1       (j)(1) Two or more persons intending to become the initial members of a 2       limited liability company may make an agreement providing that upon the 3       formation of the company the agreement will become the operating agreement.

4       (2) One person intending to become the initial member of a limited 5       liability company may assent to terms providing that upon the formation of the 6       company the terms will become the operating agreement.

7       (k)(1) An operating agreement may specify that its amendment requires the 8       approval of a person that is not a party to the operating agreement or the 9       satisfaction of a condition.

10       (2) An amendment is ineffective if its adoption does not include the 11       required approval or satisfy the specified condition.

12       (l)(1) The obligations of a limited liability company and its members to a 13       person in the person's capacity as a transferee or dissociated member are 14       governed by the operating agreement.

15       (2) Subject only to any court order issued under subdivision 4074(b)(2) 16       of this title, to effectuate a charging order, an amendment to the operating 17       agreement made after a person becomes a transferee or dissociated member is 18       effective with regard to any debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited 19       liability company or its members to the person in the person's capacity as a 20       transferee or dissociated member.

1       (m) If a record that has been delivered by a limited liability company to the 2       Secretary of State for filing and has become effective under this act contains a 3       provision that would be ineffective under subsection 4003(b) of this title if 4       contained in the operating agreement, the provision is likewise ineffective in 5       the record.

6       (n) Subject to subsection (c) of this section, if a record that has been 7       delivered by a limited liability company to the Secretary of State for filing and 8       has become effective under this title conflicts with a provision of the operating 9       agreement:

10       (1) the operating agreement prevails as to members, dissociated 11       members, transferees, and managers; and 12       (2) the record prevails as to other persons to the extent they reasonably 13       rely on the record.

14       § 4004. SUPPLEMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF LAW

15       (a) Unless displaced by particular provisions of this chapter, the principles 16       of law and equity supplement this chapter.

17       (b) If an obligation to pay interest arises under this chapter and the rate is 18       not specified, the rate shall be 12 percent per annum computed by the actuarial 19       method.

1     § 4005. NAME

2           (a)(1) Except for a low-profit limited liability company, the name of a 3     limited liability company as set forth in its articles of organization shall contain 4     the words “limited liability company” or “limited company” or the 5     abbreviation “L.L.C.,” “LLC,” “L.C.,” or “LC.” The word “limited” may be

14     incorporated, organized, or authorized to transact business in this State; and 15           (2) each name reserved under:

19           (D) 11C V.S.A. § 112.

20          (c) A person may apply to the Secretary of State for authorization to use a 21     name that does not comply with subsection (b) of this section. The Secretary

1 of State shall authorize use of the name applied for if, as to each noncomplying
2 name:

3 (1) the present user, registrant, or owner of the name consents to the 4 applicant's use of the name in a signed record and submits an undertaking in a
5 form satisfactory to the Secretary of State to change its name to a new name 6 that complies with subsection (b) of this section; or

7 (2) the applicant delivers to the Secretary of State a certified copy of the 8 final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's 9 right to use in this State the name applied for.

10 (d) Subject to section 4116 of this title, this section applies to a foreign 11 limited liability company transacting business in this State that has a certificate
12 of authority to transact business in this State or which has applied for a 13 certificate of authority.

14 (e) A person intending to operate a postsecondary school, as defined in 15 16 V.S.A. §§ 176 and 176a, shall apply for a certificate of approval from the 16 State Board of Education prior to registering a name under this section.

17 § 4006. RESERVED NAME

18 (a)(1) A person may reserve the exclusive use of the name of a limited
19 liability company, including a fictitious or assumed name for a foreign limited 20 liability company whose name is not available, by delivering an application to 21 the Secretary of State for filing.

1           (2) The application shall state the name and address of the applicant and 2           the name proposed to be reserved.

3           (3) If the Secretary of State finds that the name applied for is available,
4           the Secretary shall reserve that name for the applicant’s exclusive use for a 5           120-day period.

6           (b) The owner of a reserved limited liability company name may renew the 7           reservation for successive periods of 120 days each by delivering a renewal
8           application to the Secretary of State during the 45-day period preceding the 9           date of expiration of the reservation.

10          (c) The owner of a name reserved for a limited liability company may 11          assign the reservation to another person by delivering to the Secretary of State 12          for filing a signed notice of the assignment that states the name and address of 13          the assignee.

14          (d) The owner of a reserved limited liability company name may terminate
15          the name reservation by delivering to the Secretary of State for filing a signed 16          notice of withdrawal of name reservation.

17          § 4007. DESIGNATED OFFICE AND AGENT

18          (a) A limited liability company and a foreign limited liability company
19          authorized to do business in this State shall designate and continuously 20          maintain:

1           (1) a designated office for notification purposes, which may but 2           need not be a place of its business, and may but need not be located in this 3           State; and

4           (2) an agent and street address of the agent for service of process on the 5           limited liability company in this State.

6           (b) An agent for service of process shall be an individual resident of this 7           State, a domestic corporation, another limited liability company, or a foreign 8           corporation or foreign limited liability company authorized to do business in 9           this State.

10           § 4008. CHANGE OF DESIGNATED OFFICE OR AGENT FOR

11                   SERVICE OF PROCESS

12           (a) A limited liability company or foreign limited liability company may 13           change its designated office or agent for service of process by delivering to the 14           Secretary of State for filing a statement of change that sets forth:

15                   (1) the name of the company;

16                   (2) the street address, and the mailing address if different from the street
17           address, of its current designated office;

18                   (3) if the current designated office is to be changed, the street address, 19           and the mailing address if different from the street address, of the new 20           designated office;

21                   (4) the name and address of its current agent for service of process; and

1           (5) if the current agent for service of process is to be changed, the name
2           of the new agent for service of process and the new agent's written consent,
3           either on the statement or attached to it, to the appointment.

4           (b) If an agent for service of process changes the street address of the 5           agent's business office, the agent may change the street address of the 6           designated office of any limited liability company or foreign limited liability
7           company for which the agent is the agent for service of process by notifying 8           the company in writing of the change and signing, either manually or in 9           facsimile, and filing with the Secretary of State a statement that complies with 10          the requirements of subsection (a) of this section and recites that the company 11          has been notified of the change.

12          § 4009. RESIGNATION OF AGENT FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS

13          (a) To resign as an agent for service of process of a limited liability 14          company or foreign limited liability company, the agent shall deliver to the 15          Secretary of State for filing a statement of resignation containing the company 16          name and stating that the agent is resigning.

17          (b) The Secretary of State shall file a statement of resignation delivered 18          under subsection (a) of this section and mail or otherwise deliver a copy to the 19          designated office of the limited liability company.

20          (c) An agency for service of process terminates on the earlier of:

1           (1) the 41st day after the Secretary of State files the statement of

3           (2) when a record designating a new agent for service of process is 4           delivered to the Secretary of State for filing on behalf of the limited liability
5           company and becomes effective.

6           § 4010. SERVICE OF PROCESS

7           (a) An agent for service of process appointed by a limited liability company 8           or a foreign limited liability company is an agent of the company for service of 9           any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon 10           the company.

11           (b) If a limited liability company or foreign limited liability company fails
12           to appoint or maintain an agent for service of process in this State or the agent
13           for service of process cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the agent's
14           address, the Secretary of State is an agent of the company upon whom process, 15           notice, or demand may be served.

16           (c) Service of any process, notice, or demand on the Secretary of State may 17           be made by delivering to and leaving with the Secretary of State duplicate 18           copies of the process, notice, or demand. If the process, notice, or demand is 19           served on the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State shall forward one of the 20           copies by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the company

1 at its registered office. Service on the Secretary of State shall be returnable in 2 not less than 30 days.

3 (d) The Secretary of State shall keep a record of all processes, notices, and 4 demands served pursuant to this section and record the time of and the action
5 taken regarding the service.

6 (e) This section shall not affect the right to serve process, notice, or

2           (a) One or more persons may organize a limited liability company, 3     consisting of one or more members, by delivering articles of organization to 4     the Office of the Secretary of State for filing. The organizers need not be 5     members of the limited liability company at the time of formation or after 6     formation has occurred.

7           (b) Unless a delayed effective date is specified, the existence of a limited
8     liability company begins when the articles of organization are filed.

9           (c) The filing of the articles of organization by the Secretary of State is 10    conclusive proof that the organizers satisfied all conditions precedent to the 11    creation of the organization.

12          (d) The Secretary of State shall maintain a separate record of the number of 13    limited liability companies that deliver articles of organization to the Secretary 14    for filing by electronic transmission.

15    § 4023. ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION

16          (a) Articles of organization of a limited liability company shall set forth:

9           matters, if any provision of an operating agreement is inconsistent with the 10           articles of organization:

11           (1) the operating agreement controls as to managers, members, and 12           members' transferees; and

13           (2) the articles of organization control as to persons other than 14           managers, members, and their transferees who relied on the articles to their 15           detriment.

16           § 4024. AMENDMENT OR RESTATEMENT OF ARTICLES OF 17           ORGANIZATION

18           (a) Articles of organization of a limited liability company may be amended 19           at any time by delivering articles of amendment to the Secretary of State for 20           filing. The articles of amendment shall set forth the:

6           (2) there is a change in any other matter set forth in the articles of 7 organization under subsection 4023(b) of this title; or 8           (3) the articles of organization contain a false or erroneous statement.

9           (c) A limited liability company may restate its articles of organization at 10 any time. Restated articles of organization shall be signed and filed in the 11 same manner as articles of amendment. Restated articles of organization shall 12 be designated as such in the heading and state in the heading or in an 13 introductory paragraph the limited liability company's present name and, if it 14 has been changed, all of its former names and the date of the filing of its initial 15 articles of organization.

16           § 4025. SIGNING OF DOCUMENTS

17           (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a document to be filed 18 by or on behalf of a limited liability company in the Office of the Secretary of 19 State must be signed in the name of the company by:

20           (1) a person authorized by the company;

1           (2) a person organizing the company, if it is the company’s initial 2           articles of organization; or

3           (3) a fiduciary, if the company is in the hands of a receiver, trustee or 4           other court-appointed fiduciary.

5           (b) A document signed under subsection (a) of this section shall state 6           adjacent to the signature the name and capacity of the signer.

7           (c) Any record filed under this chapter may be signed by an agent.

8           (d) An individual who signs a record authorized or required to be filed 9           under this chapter affirms under penalty of perjury that the information stated 10          in the record is accurate.

11          § 4026. FILING IN OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE

12          (a) The original signed copy, together with a duplicate copy that may be 13          either a signed, photocopied, or conformed copy, of the articles of organization 14          or any other document required to be filed pursuant to this chapter shall be 15          delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State determines that a 16          document conforms to the filing provisions of this chapter, the Secretary of 17          State shall, when all required filing fees have been paid:

18                 (1) endorse each signed original and duplicate copy with the word 19                 “filed” and the date and time of the acceptance for filing;

20                 (2) retain the signed original in the Office of the Secretary of State; and

1           (3) return the duplicate copy to the limited liability company or to its 2 representative.

3           (b) If the Secretary of State is unable to make the determination required 4 under subsection (a) of this section for filing the articles of organization at the 5 time a document is delivered for filing, the document is deemed to have been 6 filed at the time of delivery if the Secretary of State subsequently determines 7 that:

8           (1) the document as delivered conforms to the filing provisions of this 9 chapter; or

10           (2) within 20 days after notification of nonconformance is given by the 11 Secretary to the limited liability company or its representative, the document is 12 brought into conformance.

13           (c) If the filing and determination requirements of this chapter are not 14 satisfied within the time prescribed in subdivision (b)(2) of this section, the 15 document shall not be filed.

16           (d) A document accepted for filing by the Secretary of State is effective:

17           (1) on the date it is filed, as evidenced by the Secretary of State 18 maintaining a record of the date and time of the filing;

19           (2) at the time specified in the document as its effective time; or 20           (3) on the date and at the time specified in the document if the document 21 specifies a delayed effective date and time.

1       (e) If a delayed effective date for a document is specified but no time is 2       specified, the document is effective at 12:01 a.m. on that date. A delayed 3       effective date that is later than the 90th day after the document is filed makes 4       the document effective as of the 90th day.

5       (f) An original copy may consist of an electronic communication received
6       by the Secretary of State's office, endorsement may consist of an attached 7       electronic record, and the delivery of a duplicate may be done electronically.

8       § 4027. CORRECTING FILED DOCUMENT

9       (a) A limited liability company or foreign limited liability company may 10       correct a document filed by the Secretary of State if the document contains a 11       false or erroneous statement or was defectively signed.

12       (b) A document is corrected:

13       (1) by preparing articles of correction that:

14               (A) describe the document, including its filing date, or attach a copy 15       of it to the articles of correction;

16               (B) specify the incorrect statement and the reason it is incorrect or the 17       manner in which the signing was defective;

18               (C) correct the incorrect statement or defective signing; and

19       (2) by delivering the corrected document to the Secretary of State for 20       filing.

1        (c) When filed by the Secretary of State, articles of correction filed under 2        subsection (a) of this section are effective retroactively as of the effective date
3        of the record the articles correct, but the articles are effective when filed as to 4        persons that previously relied on the uncorrected record and would be 5        adversely affected by the retroactive effect.

6        § 4028. CERTIFICATE OF EXISTENCE OR AUTHORIZATION

7        (a) A person may request the Secretary of State to furnish a certificate of 8        existence for a limited liability company or a certificate of authorization for a 9        foreign limited liability company.

10       (b) A certificate of existence for a limited liability company shall set forth:

11           (1) the company's name;

12           (2) that it is duly organized under the laws of this State and the date of 13        organization; and 14           (3) that articles of termination have not been filed.

15        (c) A certificate of authorization for a foreign limited liability company 16        shall set forth:

17           (1) the company's name used in this State;

18           (2) that it is authorized to transact business in this State; and 19           (3) that a certificate of cancellation has not been filed.

20        (d) Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of 21        existence or authorization issued by the Secretary of State may be relied upon

1 as conclusive evidence that the domestic or foreign limited liability company is 2 in existence or is authorized to transact business in this State.

3 § 4029. LIABILITY FOR FALSE STATEMENT IN FILED DOCUMENT

4 If a document filed with the Secretary of State contains a false statement, 5 one who suffers loss by reliance on the statement may recover damages for the 6 loss from a person who signed the document or caused another to sign it on the 7 person's behalf and knew the statement to be false at the time the document 8 was signed.

9 § 4030. FILING BY JUDICIAL ACT

10 If a person required by section 4025 of this title to sign any document fails 11 or refuses to do so, any other person who is adversely affected by the failure or 12 refusal may petition the Superior Court to direct the signing of the document.

13 If the Court finds that it is proper for the document to be signed and that a 14 person so designated has failed or refused to sign the document, it shall order
15 the Secretary of State to sign and file an appropriate document.

16 § 4031. LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY PROPERTY

17 Property transferred to or otherwise acquired by a limited liability company 18 is property of the limited liability company and not of the members 19 individually.

1     § 4032. WHEN PROPERTY IS LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

2             PROPERTY

3             (a) Property is limited liability company property if acquired in the 4     name of:

5             (1) the limited liability company; or

6             (2) one or more members with an indication in the instrument 7     transferring title to the property of the person's capacity as a member or of the 8     existence of a limited liability company, but without an indication of the name 9     of the limited liability company.

10            (b) Property is presumed to be limited liability company property if 11     purchased with limited liability company assets, even if not acquired in the 12     name of the limited liability company or of one or more members with an 13     indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's 14     capacity as a member or of the existence of a limited liability company.

15            (c) Property acquired in the name of one or more of the members, without 16     an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's 17     capacity as a member or of the existence of a limited liability company and 18     without use of limited liability company assets, is presumed to be separate 19     property, even if used for limited liability company purposes.

1     § 4033. ANNUAL REPORT FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

2           (a) Each domestic limited liability company and each foreign limited
3     liability company authorized to transact business in this State shall file an 4     annual report with the Secretary of State. The annual report shall set forth the 5     following information:

6           (1) the name of the company and the state or country under whose law it 7     is organized;

8           (2) the address of its designated office and the name of its designated 9     agent at that office in this State.

10          (b) Information in the annual report shall be current as of the date the 11     annual report is signed on behalf of the company.

12          (c) The annual report shall be delivered to the Secretary of State within 13     three months after the expiration of the company's fiscal year.

14     § 4034. INVOLUNTARY TERMINATION

15          (a)(1) The articles of organization of a limited liability company that fails 16     to file an annual report required by section 4033 of this title shall terminate and 17     the provisions of this section shall apply to the limited liability company.

18          (2) The certificate of authority of a foreign limited liability company 19     that fails to file an annual report required by section 4033 of this title shall 20     terminate and the Secretary of State shall notify the company of the 21     termination.

1           (3) If a company that has had its articles of organization terminated or 2           had its certificate of authority terminated files its annual report together with 3           the annual report filing fee and the reinstatement fee for each year the company 4           failed to file its annual report, its articles of organization or certificate of 5           authority, as the case may be, shall be reinstated by the Secretary of State.

6           (b) When the reinstatement becomes effective, it relates back to and takes 7           effect as of the effective date of termination of the company's articles of 8           organization or the date the company's certificate of authority was terminated 9           under subsection (a) of this section as if the termination never occurred.

10          (c) A limited liability company or a foreign limited liability company shall 11          lose the right to retain its name if the annual report required under subsection 12          (a) of this section is not filed on or before five years after the date when the 13          report is due.

14          (d) Involuntary termination under this section does not:

15               (1) prevent commencement of a proceeding against the limited liability
16               company or the foreign limited liability company in its company name; 17               provided that a proceeding is subject to dismissal unless the company is 18               reinstated in accordance with subsections (a) and (b) of this section;

19               (2) abate or suspend a proceeding pending by or against the limited 20               liability company or foreign limited liability company on the effective date of 21               involuntary termination; or

1           (3) terminate the authority of the designated agent of the limited liability
2           company or foreign limited liability company;

3           (4) alter the limited liability status of members or managers of the 4           limited liability company or foreign limited liability company; or

5           (5) impair the validity of acts of the limited liability company during the 6           period between involuntary termination and reinstatement.

7           Subchapter 3. Relations of Members and Managers to Persons

8                   Dealing with Limited Liability Company

9           § 4041. NO AGENCY POWER OF MEMBER AS MEMBER

10           (a) A member is not an agency of a limited liability company solely by 11           reason of being a member.

12           (b) A person's status as a member does not prevent or restrict law other 13           than this title from imposing liability on a limited liability company because of 14           the person's conduct.

15           § 4042. LIABILITY OF MEMBERS AND MANAGERS

16           (a) The debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a limited liability company, 17           whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise:

18                   (1) are solely the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the 19           company; and

1 initial member of the limited liability company with the consent of a majority
2 of the organizers. The organizers may consent to more than one person
3 simultaneously becoming the company's initial members.

4 (d) After formation of a limited liability company, a person becomes a
5 member:

6 (1) as provided in the operating agreement;

7 (2) as the result of a transaction effective under subchapter 10 of this 8 chapter;

9 (3) with the affirmative vote or consent of all the members; or

10 (4) if, within 90 consecutive days after the company ceases to have any 11 members:

12 (A) the last person to have been a member or the legal representative 13 of that person designates a person to become a member; and 14 (B) the designated person consents to become a member.

15 (e) A person may become a member without acquiring a distributional 16 interest and without making or being obligated to make a contribution to the 17 limited liability company.

18 § 4052. FORM OF CONTRIBUTION

19 A contribution may consist of tangible or intangible property or other 20 benefit to the company, including money, promissory notes, services

1 performed, agreements to contribute money or property, or contracts for 2 services to be performed.

3 § 4053. MEMBER’S LIABILITY FOR CONTRIBUTIONS

4 (a) A person’s obligation to make a contribution to a limited liability 5 company is not excused by the member’s death, disability, or other inability to 6 perform personally. If a person does not make the required contribution, the 7 person’s estate is obligated at the option of the company to contribute money 8 equal to that portion of the value of the part of the contribution which has not 9 been made.

10 (b) A creditor of a limited liability company who extends credit or 11 otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in subsection (a) of this 12 section, and without notice of any compromise under subdivision 4054(d)(4) of 13 this title, may enforce the original obligation.

14 § 4054. MANAGEMENT OF LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

15 (a) A limited liability company is a member-managed limited liability 16 company unless the operating agreement:

17 (1) expressly provides that:

18 (A) the company is or will be “manager-managed”;

19 (B) the company is or will be “managed by managers”; or 20 (C) management of the company is or will be “vested in 21 managers”; or

1           (2) includes words of similar import.

2           (b) In a member-managed limited liability company:

3           (1) the management and conduct of the company are vested in the 4 members;

5           (2) each member has equal rights in the management and conduct of the 6 company's activities; and

7           (3) except as otherwise provided in subsection (d) of this section, any 8 matter relating to the activities of the company may be decided by a majority 9 of the members.

10          (c) In a manager-managed limited liability company:

11          (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d) of this section, the 12 managers have the exclusive authority to manage and conduct the company's 13 activities.

14          (2) Each manager has equal rights in the management and conduct of 15 the company's activities.

16          (3) Except as specified in subsection (d) of this section, any matter 17 relating to the activities of the company may be exclusively decided by the 18 manager or, if there is more than one manager, by a majority of the managers.

19          (4)(A) A manager may be chosen at any time by the affirmative vote or 20 consent of a majority of the members and remains a manager until a successor

1 has been chosen, unless the manager at an earlier time resigns, is removed, or 2 dies, or, in the case of a manager that is not an individual, terminates.

3 (B) A manager may be removed at any time by the affirmative vote
4 or consent of a majority of the members without notice or cause.

5 (5)(A) A person need not be a member to be a manager, but the 6 dissociation of a member that is also a manager removes the person as a 7 manager.

8 (B) If a person that is both a manager and a member ceases to be a 9 manager, that cessation does not by itself dissociate the person as a member.

10 (6) A person's ceasing to be a manager does not discharge any debt, 11 obligation, or other liability to the limited liability company or members which 12 the person incurred while a manager.

13 (d) Except as provided in the operating agreement, the affirmative vote or 14 consent of all the members is required to:

15 (1) amend the operating agreement of a limited liability company;

16 (2) amend the articles of organization under section 4024 of this title;

17 (3) compromise an obligation to make a contribution under section 4053
18 of this title;

19 (4) compromise, as among members, an obligation of a member to make 20 a contribution or return money or other property paid or distributed in violation 21 of this chapter;

1           (5) make interim distributions under subsection 4055(a) of this title;

2           (6) admit a new member;

3           (7) use the company's property to redeem an interest subject to a
4 charging order;

5           (8) waive the right to have the company's business wound up and the 6 company terminated under subsection 4102(b) of this title; and

7           (9) sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all,
8 of the company's property with or without goodwill.

9           (e)(1) A member or manager may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act
10 for the member or manager by signing an appointment instrument, either 11 personally or by the member's or manager's attorney-in-fact.

12           (2) An appointment of a proxy is valid for 11 months unless a different 13 time is specified in the appointment instrument.

14           (3) An appointment is revocable by the member or manager unless the 15 appointment form conspicuously states that it is irrevocable and the 16 appointment is coupled with an interest, in which case the appointment is 17 revoked when the coupled interest is extinguished.

18           (f)(1) An action requiring the affirmative vote or consent of members under 19 this title may be taken without a meeting, if the action is approved in a consent 20 by members having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be

1 necessary to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all members
2 entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

3 (2) A member may appoint a proxy or other agent to consent or 4 otherwise act for the member by signing an appointing record, personally or by 5 the member's agent.

6 (g)(1) An action that may be taken at a meeting of the managers may be 7 taken without a meeting if the action is approved by consent of all managers 8 entitled to vote on the action.

9 (2) The action must be evidenced by one or more consents reflected in a 10 record describing the action taken and signed by all managers entitled to vote 11 on the action.

12 (h) The dissolution of a limited liability company does not affect the 13 applicability of this section. However, a person that wrongfully causes 14 dissolution of the company loses the right to participate in management as a 15 member and a manager.

16 (i) This chapter does not entitle a member to remuneration for services 17 performed for a member-managed limited liability company, except for 18 reasonable compensation for services rendered in winding up the activities of 19 the company.

1     § 4055. SHARING OF PROFITS AND LOSSES AND RIGHT TO

2             DISTRIBUTIONS

3             (a) The profits and losses of a limited liability company shall be allocated 4             among the members or the holders of distributional interests, as the case may 5             be, in proportion to the agreed value, as stated in the limited liability company 6             records required to be kept under this chapter, of the contributions made by 7             each member, taking into account variations in the capital contributions of 8             each member during the period for which such allocations are made.

9             (b) Any distributions made by a limited liability company before its 10            dissolution and winding up shall be made among the members or the holders of 11            distributional interests, as the case may be, in proportion to the agreed value of 12            the contributions made by each member as of the date of such distribution.

13            (c)(1) A member has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and 14            winding up of a limited liability company only if the company decides to make 15            an interim distribution.

16            (2) A person's dissociation does not entitle the person to a distribution.

17            (d) A member has no right to receive, and may not be required to accept, a 18            distribution in kind.

19            (e) If a member or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the 20            member or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available 21            to, a creditor of the limited liability company with respect to the distribution.

1     § 4056. LIMITATIONS ON DISTRIBUTIONS

2           (a) A distribution shall not be made if:

3                 (1) the limited liability company would not be able to pay its debts as 4                 they become due in the ordinary course of business; or

5                 (2) the company's total assets would be less than the sum of its total 6                 liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the company were to be 7                 dissolved, wound up, and terminated at the time of the distribution, to satisfy 8                 the preferential rights upon dissolution, winding up, and termination of 9                 members whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the 10                distribution.

11           (b) A limited liability company may base a determination that a distribution 12           is not prohibited under subsection (a) of this section on financial statements 13           prepared on the basis of:

14                 (1) generally accepted accounting practices and principles;

15                 (2) a fair valuation; or

16                 (3) another method that is reasonable under the circumstances.

17           (c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e) of this section, the effect 18           of a distribution under subsection (a) of this section is measured:

19                 (1) in the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other 20                 acquisition of a distributional interest in a limited liability company, as of the 1 date money or other property is transferred or debt incurred by the

2 company; and

3 (2) in all other cases, as of the date the:

4 (A) distribution is authorized if the payment occurs within 120 days
5 after the date of authorization; or

6 (B) payment is made if it occurs more than 120 days after the date of 7 authorization.

8 (d) A limited liability company's indebtedness to a member incurred by 9 reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with 10 the company's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors.

11 (e) Indebtedness of a limited liability company, including indebtedness 12 issued in connection with or as part of a distribution, is not considered a 13 liability for purposes of determinations under subsection (a) of this section if 14 its terms provide that payment of principal and interest are made only if and to 15 the extent that payment of a distribution to members could then be made under 16 this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of 17 principal or interest on the indebtedness and not the issuance of the 18 indebtedness is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the 19 date the payment is made.

1        § 4057. LIABILITY FOR UNLAWFUL DISTRIBUTIONS

2            (a) A member of a member-managed limited liability company or a
3        member or manager of a manager-managed company who votes for or assents 4        to a distribution made in violation of section 4056 of this title, the articles of 5        organization or a written operating agreement is personally liable to the 6        company for the amount of the distribution which exceeds the amount that 7        could have been distributed without violating section 4056 of this title, the 8        articles of organization or a written operating agreement if it is established that 9        the member or manager did not perform the member's or manager's duties in 10       compliance with section 4059 of this title.

11           (b) A member of a manager-managed limited liability company who knew 12        a distribution was made to such member in violation of section 4056 of this 13        title is personally liable to the limited liability company, but only to the extent 14        that the distribution received by such member exceeded the amount that could 15        properly have been paid under section 4056 of this title.

16           (c) A member or manager against whom an action is brought under this 17        section may implead in the action all:

18            (1) other members or managers who voted for or assented to the 19        distribution in violation of subsection (a) of this section and may compel 20        contribution from them; and

1           (2) members who received a distribution in violation of subsection (b) of 2           this section and may compel contribution from the member in the amount 3           received in violation of subsection (b) of this section.

4           (d) A proceeding under this section is barred unless it is commenced within 5           two years after the distribution.

6           § 4058. INFORMATION RIGHTS

7           (a) In a member-managed limited liability company, each member has the 8           right, subject to such reasonable standards, including standards governing what 9           information and documents are to be furnished and at what time and location, 10           as may be set forth in the articles of organization, an operating agreement, or 11           otherwise established by the members to obtain from the company from time 12           to time and upon reasonable demand for any purpose reasonably related to the 13           member's interest as a member of the limited liability company during the 14           period in which he or she was a member:

15           (1) information concerning the company's business or affairs reasonably 16           required for the proper exercise of the member's rights and duties under the 17           operating agreement or this chapter; and

18           (2) other information concerning the company's business or affairs, 19           except to the extent the demand or the information demanded is unreasonable 20           or otherwise improper under the circumstances.

1           (b) In a manager-managed limited liability company:

2                   (1) the right to receive information as stated in subdivision (a)(1) of this 3           section shall apply to the managers and not the members;

4                   (2) during regular business hours and at a reasonable location specified 5           by the company, a member may inspect and copy information regarding the 6           activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances of the company 7           as is just and reasonable if:

8                   (A) the member seeks the information for a purpose reasonably 9           related to the member's interest as a member;

10                  (B) the member makes a demand in a record received by the 11           company, describing with reasonable particularity the information sought and 12           the purpose for seeking the information; and

13                  (C) the information sought is directly connected to the member's 14           purpose; and 15                  (3) the managers shall have the right to keep confidential from members 16           who are not managers, for such period of time as the managers deem 17           reasonable, any information which the managers reasonably believe to be in 18           the nature of trade secrets or other information the disclosure of which the 19           managers in good faith believe is not in the best interest of the company.

1       (c) A company may impose a reasonable charge, limited to the costs of 2       labor and material, for copies of records or other information furnished under 3       this section.

4       (d) A company may maintain its records in other than written form if such 5       form is capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time or 6       into an electronic form that may be prescribed by the Secretary of State.

7       (e) Any demand under this section shall:

8           (1) be in writing;

9           (2) be made in good faith and for a proper purpose; and 10          (3) describe with reasonable particularity the purpose and the records or 11       information desired.

12       (f)(1) A member or person dissociated as a member may exercise the rights 13       under this section through an agent or, in the case of an individual under legal 14       disability, a legal representative.

15           (2) Any restriction or condition imposed by the operating agreement or 16       under subsection (h) of this section applies both to the agent or legal 17       representative of such a member and to a person dissociated as a member.

18       (g) Subject to section 4075 of this title, the rights under this section do not 19       extend to a person who is a transferee of an interest in a limited liability 20       company, except that a transferee is entitled to an account of the company's 21       transactions only from the date of dissolution.

1       (h)(1) In addition to any restriction or condition stated in this section or the 2       company's operating agreement, a limited liability company may impose 3       reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be 4       furnished under this section, including designating information confidential
5       and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient.

6       (2) In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this 7       subsection, the company has the burden of proving reasonableness.

8       (i) Failure of the company to keep or maintain any of the records or 9       information required pursuant to this section shall not be grounds for imposing 10       liability on any person for the debts and obligations of the company.

11       § 4059. GENERAL STANDARDS OF MEMBER'S AND MANAGER'S

12               CONDUCT

13       (a) The only fiduciary duties a member owes to a member-managed limited 14       liability company and its other members are the duty of loyalty and the duty of 15       care imposed by subsections (b) and (c) of this section.

16       (b) A member's duty of loyalty to a member-managed limited liability 17       company and its other members is limited to the following:

18               (1) to account to the company and to hold as trustee for it any property, 19       profit, or benefit derived by the member in the conduct or winding up of the 20       company's business or derived from a use by the member of the company's 21       property, including the appropriation of the company's opportunity;

1           (2) to refrain from dealing with the company in the conduct or winding
2 up of the company's business as or on behalf of a party having an interest
3 adverse to the company; and

4           (3) to refrain from competing with the company in the conduct of the 5 company's business before the dissolution of the company.

6           (c) A member's duty of care to a member-managed limited liability 7 company and its other members in the conduct of and winding up of the 8 company's business is limited to refrain from engaging in grossly negligent or 9 reckless conduct, or a knowing violation of the law.

10          (d) A member shall discharge the duties to a member-managed limited 11 liability company and its other members under this chapter or under the 12 operating agreement and exercise any rights consistently with the obligation of 13 good faith and fair dealing.

14          (e) A member of a member-managed limited liability company does not 15 violate a duty or obligation under this chapter or under the operating agreement 16 merely because the member's conduct furthers the member's own interest.

17          (f) All the members of a member-managed limited liability company or a 18 manager-managed limited liability company may authorize or ratify, after full 19 disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction that otherwise 20 would violate the duty of loyalty.

1       (g) It is a defense to a claim under subdivision (b)(2) of this section and 2       any comparable claim in equity or at common law that the transaction was fair
3       to the limited liability company.

4       (h) This section applies to a person winding up the limited liability 5       company's business as the personal or legal representative of the last surviving 6       member of the company as if the person were a member.

7       (i) In a manager-managed limited liability company:

8           (1) subsections (a), (b), (c), and (g) of this section apply to the manager 9           or managers and not the members, and the duty stated in subdivision (b)(3) of 10          this section continues until winding up is completed;

11           (2) subsection (d) of this section applies to managers and members;

12           (3) subsection (e) of this section applies only to members;

13           (4) the power to ratify under subsection (f) of this section applies only to 14          members;

15           (5) subject to subsection (d) of this section, a member does not have any 16          duty to the company or to the other members solely by reason of being a 17          member;

18           (6) a member who pursuant to the operating agreement exercises some 19          or all of the rights of a manager in the management and conduct of the 20          company's business is held to the standards of conduct in subsections (a), (b),

1 (c), and (g) of this section to the extent that the member exercises the 2 managerial authority vested in a manager by this chapter; and

3 (7) a manager is relieved of liability imposed by law for violation of the 4 standards prescribed by subsections (a), (b), (c), and (g) of this section to the 5 extent of the managerial authority delegated to the members by the operating 6 agreement.

7 (j) In discharging his or her duties, a member or a manager is entitled to 8 rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial 9 statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

10 (1) one or more members, managers, officers, or employees of the 11 company whom the member or manager reasonably believes to be reliable and 12 competent in the matter presented;

13 (2) legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the 14 member or manager reasonably believes are within the person's professional or 15 expert competence; or

16 (3) a committee of the members or managers of which the member or 17 manager is not a member if the member or manager reasonably believes the 18 committee merits confidence.

19 (k) A member or manager is not acting in good faith if he or she has 20 knowledge concerning the matter if the matter in question that makes reliance 21 permitted by subsection (j) of this section unwarranted.

1       (1)(1) A member of a member-managed limited liability company or a 2       manager of a manager-managed limited liability company may lend money to 3       and transact other business with the company.

4       (2) As to each loan or transaction, the rights and obligations of the 5       member or manager, as applicable, are the same as those of a person who is not 6       a member or manager, subject to other applicable law.

7       (m) A member or manager is not liable for any action taken as a member or 8       manager or any failure to take any action, if the member or manager performed 9       the duties of his or her office in compliance with this section.

10       § 4060. REIMBURSEMENT, INDEMNIFICATION, AND INSURANCE

11       (a) A member-managed limited liability company shall reimburse a 12       member, and a manager-managed limited liability company shall reimburse a 13       manager, for payments made and indemnify the member or manager for 14       liabilities reasonably incurred by the member or manager in the ordinary and 15       proper conduct of the activities of the limited liability company or for the 16       preservation of its activities or property.

17       (b) A limited liability company may purchase and maintain insurance on 18       behalf of a member or manager against liability asserted against or incurred by 19       the member or manager in that capacity or arising from that status whether or 20       not the operation agreement is permitted to provide for the member or manager 21       to be indemnified against the liability.

1       (c) A limited liability company shall reimburse a member for an advance to 2       the company beyond the amount of contribution the member agreed to make.

3       (d) A payment or advance that gives rise to an obligation of a limited
4       liability company under subsections (a) through (c) of this section constitutes a 5       loan to the company, which accrues interest from the date of the payment or 6       advance.

7       (e) A member is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for a 8       limited liability company even in the capacity as a manager of a 9       manager-managed company, except for reasonable compensation for services 10       rendered in winding up the activities of the company.

11               Subchapter 5. Transferees and Creditors of Member

12       § 4071. MEMBER'S DISTRIBUTIONAL INTEREST

13       (a) A distributional interest in a limited liability company is personal 14       property and, subject to sections 4072 and 4073 of this title, may be transferred 15       in whole or in part.

16       (b) An operating agreement may provide that a distributional interest may 17       be evidenced by a certificate of the interest issued by the limited liability 18       company and, subject to section 4073 of this title, may also provide for the 19       transfer of any interest represented by the certificate by a transfer of the 20       certificate.

1        § 4072. TRANSFER OF DISTRIBUTIONAL INTEREST

2            (a) A transfer, in whole or in part, of a distributional interest:

3                    (1) is permissible;

4                    (2) does not by itself cause a member's dissociation or a dissolution and 5 winding up of the company's activities; and

6                    (3) subject to section 4075 of this title, does not entitle the transferee to:

7                            (A) become or to exercise any rights of a member:

8                            (B) participate in the management or conduct of the company's 9 activities; or

10                    (C) except as otherwise provided in subsection 4073(d) of this title, 11 have access to records or other information concerning the company's 12 activities.

13            (b) A transfer of a distributional interest entitles the transferee to receive, in 14 accordance with the transfer, the distributions to which the transferor would 15 otherwise be entitled with respect to the interest.

16            (c) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 4081(4)(B) of this title, if a 17 member transfers a distributional interest, the transferor retains the rights of a 18 member other than the distributional interest transferred and retains all duties 19 and obligations of a member.

1       (d) A transfer of a distributional interest in violation of a restriction on 2       transfer contained in the operating agreement is ineffective if the intended 3       transferee has knowledge or notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.

4       § 4073. RIGHTS OF TRANSFEREE

5       (a) A transferee of a distributional interest may become a member of a 6       limited liability company if and to the extent that all other members consent.

7       (b)(1) A transferee who has become a member, has the rights and powers, 8       and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a member under the 9       operating agreement and this chapter to the extent of the membership interest 10       transferred.

11       (2) A transferee who becomes a member also is liable for the transferor 12       member's obligations to make contributions under section 4053 of this title and 13       for obligations under section 4057 of this title to return unlawful distributions, 14       but the transferee is not obligated for the transferor member's liabilities 15       unknown to the transferee at the time the transferee becomes a member and 16       which could not be ascertained from the articles of organization or the 17       operating agreement made available to the transferee, and is not personally 18       liable for any obligation of the limited liability company incurred before the 19       transferee's admission as a member.

20       (c) Whether or not a transferee of a distributional interest becomes a 21       member under subsection (a) of this section, the transferor retains all duties

1 and obligations of a member and is not released from liability to the limited
2 liability company and the other members under the operating agreement or this 3 chapter unless all other members consent.

4 (d) A transferee who does not become a member is not entitled to 5 participate in the management or conduct of the limited liability company's 6 business or affairs, require access to information concerning the company's 7 transactions, or inspect or copy any of the company's books and other records,
8 except that in a dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company, a 9 transferee is entitled to an account of the company's transactions only from the 10 date of dissolution.

11 (e) A transferee who does not become a member is entitled to:

12 (1) receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the 13 transferor would otherwise be entitled;

14 (2) receive, upon dissolution and winding up of the limited liability 15 company's business:

16 (A) in accordance with the transfer, the net amount otherwise 17 distributable to the transferor; and

18 (B) a statement of account only from the date of the latest statement 19 of account agreed to by all the members.

20 (f) A limited liability company need not give effect to a transfer or a 21 transferee's rights under this section until it has notice of the transfer.

1     § 4074. CHARGING ORDER

2           (a)(1) On application by a judgment creditor of a member or transferee, a 3           court may enter a charging order against the distributional interest of the 4           judgment debtor for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment.

5           (2) Except as provided in subsection (f) of this section, a charging order 6           constitutes a lien on a judgment debtor’s distributional interest and requires the 7           limited liability company to pay over to the person to which the charging order
8           was issued any distribution that would otherwise be paid to the judgment 9           debtor.

10          (b) To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of distributions 11          pursuant to a charging order in effect under subsection (a) of this section, the 12          court may:

13           (1) appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging order, 14           with the power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor might have 15           made; and

16           (2) make all other orders necessary to give effect to the charging order.

17          (c)(1) Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order will not 18          pay the judgment debt within a reasonable time, the court may foreclose the 19          lien and order the sale of the distributional interest.

1           (2) Except as provided in subsection (f) of this section, the purchaser at 2           the foreclosure sale obtains only the distributional interest, does not thereby 3           become a member, and is subject to section 4073 of this title.

4           (d) At any time before foreclosure under subsection (c) of this section, the 5           member or transferee whose distributional interest is subject to a charging 6           order under subsection (a) of this section may extinguish the charging order by 7           satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the satisfaction with the 8           court that issued the charging order.

9           (e) At any time before foreclosure under subsection (c) of this section, a 10           limited liability company or one or more members whose distributional 11           interests are not subject to the charging order may pay to the judgment creditor 12           the full amount due under the judgment and thereby succeed to the rights of the 13           judgment creditor, including the charging order.

14           (f) This section does not deprive any member or transferee of the benefit of 15           any exemption laws applicable to the member's or transferee's distributional 16           interest.

17           (g) If a court orders foreclosure of a charging order lien against the sole 18           member of a limited liability company:

19                   (1) the court shall confirm the sale;

20                   (2) the purchaser at the sale obtains the member's entire interest, not 21           only the member's transferable interest;

1           (3) the purchaser thereby becomes a member; and

2           (4) the person whose interest was subject to the foreclosed charging 3           order is dissociated as a member.

4           (h) This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a person, who in 5           the capacity of a judgment creditor seeks to enforce a judgment against a 6           member or transferee, may satisfy the judgment from the judgment debtor's 7           distributional interest.

8           § 4075. POWER OF ESTATE OF DECEASED MEMBER

9           If a member who is an individual dies, the member's legal representative 10          may exercise the rights of a transferee under section 4073 of this title, and, for 11          purposes of settling the estate, the member's legal representative may exercise 12          the rights the deceased member had under section 4058 of this title.

21           member's dissociation;

1           (3) the member’s expulsion pursuant to the operating agreement;

3                 (A) it is unlawful to carry on the company’s business with the person 4 as a member;

5                 (B) there has been a transfer of substantially all of the member’s
6 distributional interest, other than a transfer for security purposes, or a court

8 foreclosed;

9                 (C) a corporation that is a member fails to obtain a revocation of its 10 certificate of dissolution or a reinstatement of its charter or its right to conduct 11 business within 90 days after the company notifies such member that it will be 12 expelled because it has filed a certificate of dissolution or the equivalent, its

1           (B) willfully or persistently committed a material breach of the 2           operating agreement or of a duty owed to the company or the other members 3           under section 4059 of this title; or

4           (C) engaged in conduct relating to the company's business which 5           makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the business with the person as 6           a member;

7           (6) in a member-managed limited liability company, the member:

8           (A) becomes a debtor in bankruptcy;

9           (B) executes an assignment for the benefit of creditors;

10          (C) seeks, consents to, or acquiesces in, the appointment of a trustee,

12          member's property; or

13          (D) fails, within 90 days after the appointment, to have vacated or 14          stayed the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the member or of 15          all or substantially all of the member's property obtained without the member's 16          consent or acquiescence, or fails within 90 days after the expiration of a stay to 17          have the appointment vacated;

5                   agreement;

6                   (8) in the case of a member that is a trust or is acting as a member by 7                   virtue of being a trustee of a trust, distribution of the trust's entire rights to 8                   receive distributions from the company, but not merely by reason of the 9                   substitution of a successor trustee;

10                  (9) in the case of a member that is an estate or is acting as a member by 11                  virtue of being a personal representative of an estate, distribution of the estate's 12                  entire distributional interest in the company, but not merely the substitution of 13                  a successor personal representative;

14                  (10) termination of the existence of a member if the member is not an 15                  individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, estate, or trust;

16                  (11) the company participates in a merger under subchapter 10 of this 17                  chapter and:

8 § 4082. MEMBER’S POWER TO DISSOCIATE; WRONGFUL

9           DISSOCIATION

10           (a) A person has the power to dissociate as a member from a limited 11 liability company at any time, rightfully or wrongfully, by express will 12 pursuant to subdivision 4081(1) of this title.

13           (b) A member’s dissociation from a limited liability company is wrongful 14 only if the dissociation:

15           (1) is in breach of an express provision of the operating agreement or 16 articles of organization; or

17           (2) occurs before the termination of the company and:

18           (A) the member withdraws as a member by express will;

19           (B) the member is expelled as a member by judicial determination 20 under subdivision 4081(5) of this title;

1           (C) the member is dissociated under subdivision 4081(6)(A) of this 2 title by becoming a debtor in bankruptcy; or

3           (D) in the case of a member who is not an individual, trust other than 4 a business trust, or estate, the member is expelled or otherwise dissociated
5 because it willfully dissolved or terminated its existence.

6           (c)(1) A person that wrongfully dissociates as a member from a limited
7 liability company is liable to the company and, subject to section 4131 of this 8 title, to the other members for damages caused by the dissociation.

9           (2) The liability is in addition to any other debt, obligation, or other 10 liability of the member to the company or to the other members.

11 § 4083. EFFECT OF MEMBER'S DISSOCIATION

12           (a) When a person is dissociated as a member of a limited liability
13 company:

14           (1) the person's right to participate as a member in the management and 15 conduct of the company's business terminates;

16           (2) if the company is member-managed, the person's fiduciary duties as 17 a member end with regard to matters arising and events occurring after the 18 person's dissociation; and

19           (3) subject to section 4075 of this title and subchapter 10 of this chapter, 20 any distributional interest owned by the person immediately before

1 dissociation in the person's capacity as a member is owned by the person
2 solely as a transferee.

3 (b) A person's dissociation as a member of a limited liability company does 4 not of itself discharge the person from any debt, obligation, or other liability to 5 the company or the other members that the person incurred while a member.

6 Subchapter 7. Winding Up Of Company Business

7 § 4101. EVENTS CAUSING DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP OF 8 COMPANY BUSINESS

9 (a) A limited liability company is dissolved, and its business shall be 10 wound up, upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

11 (1) an event or circumstance that the operating agreement states causes
12 dissolution;

13 (2) consent of the number or percentage of members specified in the 14 operating agreement, or in the absence of a provision governing approval of a

3           (B) it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the company’s 4           activities in conformance with the certificate of organization and the operating 5           agreement; or

6           (5) on application by a member, the entry by the Superior Court of an

9           (A) have acted, are acted, or will act in a manner that is illegal or 10          fraudulent; or

12          is, or will be directly harmful to the applicant.

13          (b) In an action brought under subdivision (a)(5) of this section, the Court 14          may order a remedy other than dissolution.

15          § 4102. LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY CONTINUES AFTER

16                   DISSOLUTION

17          (a) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, a limited liability company 18          continues after dissolution only for the purpose of winding up its business.

19          (b) At any time after the dissolution of a limited liability company and 20          before the winding up of its business is completed, all of the members, or, if 21          different, the number or percentage of members specified in the operating

1 agreement to dissolve or liquidate the company may waive the right to have the 2 company's business wound up and the company terminated, in which case:

3 (1) the limited liability company resumes carrying on its business as if 4 dissolution had never occurred and any liability incurred by the company or a 5 member after the dissolution and before the waiver is determined shall be 6 subject to the same limitations on liability as if the dissolution had never 7 occurred; and

8 (2) the rights of a third party accruing under section 4104 of this title or 9 arising out of conduct in reliance on the dissolution before the third party knew 10 or received a notification of the waiver are not adversely affected.

11 § 4103. RIGHT TO WIND UP LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY'S

12 BUSINESS

13 (a) After dissolution, a member may participate in winding up a limited 14 liability company's business, but on application of any member, member's 15 legal representative, or transferee, the Superior Court, for good cause shown, 16 may order judicial supervision of the winding up.

17 (b) In winding up its activities, a limited liability company:

9                   (E) settle disputes by mediation or arbitration; and 10                  (F) perform other acts necessary or appropriate to the winding up.

11           (c) If a dissolved limited liability company has no members, the legal 12           representative of the last person to have been a member may wind up the 13           activities of the company. If the person does so, the person has the powers of a 14           sole manager under subsection 4054(c) of this title and is deemed to be a 15           manager for the purposes of subdivision 4042(a)(2) of this title.

16           (d)(1) If the legal representative under subsection (c) of this section 17           declines or fails to wind up the company's activities, a person may be 18           appointed to do so by the consent of transferees who own a majority of the 19           rights to receive distributions as transferees at the time the consent is to be 20           effective.

21           (2) A person appointed under this subsection:

1           (A) has the powers of a sole manager under subsection 4054(c) of 2           this title and is deemed to be a manager for purposes of subdivision 4042(a)(2)
3           of this title; and

4           (B) shall promptly deliver to the Secretary of State for filing an 5           amendment to the company's certificate of organization to:

6                   (i) state that the company has no members;

7                   (ii) state that the person has been appointed pursuant to this 8           subsection (d) to wind up the company; and 9                   (iii) provide the street and mailing addresses of the person.

10           (e) The Superior Court may order judicial supervision of the winding up of 11           a dissolved limited liability company, including the appointment of a person to 12           wind up the company's activities:

13                   (1) on application of a member, if the applicant establishes good cause;

14                   (2) on the application of a transferee, if:

15                           (A) the company does not have any members;

16                           (B) the legal representative of the last person to have been a member 17           declines or fails to wind up the company's activities; and

18                   (C) within a reasonable time following the dissolution, a person has 19           not been appointed pursuant to subsection (c) of this section; or 20                   (3) in connection with a proceeding under subdivision 4101(a)(4) or (5)

21           of this title.

1     § 4104. MEMBER’S OR MANAGER’S POWER AND LIABILITY AS

2             AGENT AFTER DISSOLUTION

3             A limited liability company is bound by a member’s or manager’s act after 4     dissolution that:

5             (1) is appropriate for winding up the company’s business; or

6             (2) would have bound the company under section 4041 of this title 7     before dissolution, if the other party to the transaction did not have notice of 8     the dissolution.

9     § 4105. ARTICLES OF TERMINATION

10            (a) At any time after dissolution and winding up, a limited liability
11     company may terminate its existence by filing with the Secretary of State 12     articles of termination stating:

13            (1) the name of the company;

14            (2) the date of the dissolution; and 15            (3) that the company’s business has been wound up and the legal

5             members who are creditors. Any surplus must be applied to pay in money the 6             net amount distributable to members in accordance with their right to 7             distributions under subsection (b) of this section.

8             (b) Each member is entitled to a distribution upon the winding up of the 9             limited liability company’s business consisting of a return of all contributions 10            which have not previously been returned and a distribution of any remainder in 11            proportion to each member’s capital contributions.

12     § 4107. KNOWN CLAIMS AGAINST DISSOLVED LIMITED LIABILITY
13             COMPANY

14            (a) A dissolved limited liability company may dispose of the known claims 15            against it by following the procedure described in this section.

16            (b) A dissolved limited liability company shall notify its known claimants 17            in writing of the dissolution. The notice shall:

18                (1) specify the information required to be included in a claim;

19                (2) provide a mailing address where the claim is to be sent;

20                (3) state the deadline for receipt of the claim, which may not be less than 10 after the claimant receives the notice; and 11           (B) the claimant does not commence the required action within the 12 90 days.

13           (d) This section does not apply to a claim based on an event occurring after 14 the effective date of dissolution or a liability that on that date is contingent.

15           § 4108. OTHER CLAIMS AGAINST DISSOLVED LIMITED LIABILITY

16           COMPANY

17           (a) A dissolved limited liability company may publish notice of its 18 dissolution and request persons having claims against the company to present 19 them in accordance with the notice.

1        (b) The notice shall:

2            (1) be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in 3        the county in which the dissolved limited liability company's principal office is

9        unless a proceeding to enforce the claim is commenced within five years after 10       publication of the notice.

11        (c)(1) If the dissolved limited liability company sends notice to the 12       Attorney General and publishes a newspaper notice in accordance with 13       subsection (b) of this section, a cause of action against a dissolved limited

20            (2) A cause of action against a dissolved limited liability company
21       arising under subdivision (1)(A) of this subsection is extinguished unless the 3 limitations applicable to the cause of action.

4 (3) A cause of action against a dissolved limited liability company

4 Subchapter 8. Foreign Limited Liability Companies

5 § 4111. LAW GOVERNING FOREIGN LIMITED LIABILITY

6 COMPANIES

7 (a) The laws of the state or other jurisdiction under which a foreign limited 8 liability company is organized govern its organization and internal affairs and 9 the liability of a member as a member, and a manager as a manager, for the 10 debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the foreign limited liability company or 11 series thereof.

12 (b) A foreign limited liability company may not be denied a certificate of 13 authority by reason of any difference between the laws of another jurisdiction
14 under which the foreign company is formed and the laws of this State.

15 (c) A certificate of authority does not authorize a foreign limited liability
16 company to engage in any business or exercise any power that a limited
17 liability company may not engage in or exercise in this State.

18 § 4112. APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATE OF AUTHORITY

19 (a) A foreign limited liability company may apply for a certificate of 1 liability company is required to obtain a certificate of authority under 2 subsection (a) of this section:

2           § 4114. ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATE OF AUTHORITY

3           If the Secretary of State determines that an application for a certificate of 4           authority complies as to form with the filing requirements of this chapter, and 5           if all filing fees have been paid, the Secretary of State shall file the application 6           and issue a certificate of authority to the foreign limited liability company or 7           its representative.

8           § 4115. AMENDED CERTIFICATE OF AUTHORITY

9           (a) A foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in 10           this State must obtain an amended certificate of authority from the Secretary of 11           State if it:

12                   (1) changes its name; and

13                   (2) changes the state or country under whose law it is organized.

14           (b) The requirements of section 4134 of this title for obtaining an original 15           certificate of authority apply to obtaining an amended certificate under this 16           section.

18           (a)(1) A foreign limited liability company whose name does not comply 19           with section 4005 of this title may not obtain a certificate of authority until it
20           adopts, for the purpose of transacting business in this State, an alternate name 21           that complies with section 4005 of this title.

1           (2) A foreign limited liability company that adopts an alternate name
2           under this subsection and obtains a certificate of authority with the alternate 3           name need not comply with chapter 15 of this title.

4           (3) After obtaining a certificate of authority with an alternate name, a 5           foreign limited liability company shall transact business in this State under the 6           alternate name unless the company is authorized under chapter 15 of this title
7           to transact business in this State under another name.

8           (b) If a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in 9           this State changes its name to one that does not satisfy the requirements of 10           section 4005 of this title, it may not transact business in this State until it 11           complies with subsection (a) of this section and obtains an amended certificate 12           of authority.

13           § 4117. REVOCATION OF CERTIFICATE OF AUTHORITY

14           (a) A certificate of authority of a foreign limited liability company to 15           transact business in this State may be revoked by the Secretary of State in the 16           manner provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section if:

17           (1) the company does not:

18                   (A) pay, within 60 days after the due date, any fee, tax, or penalty
19                   due to the Secretary of State under this chapter;

20                   (B) appoint and maintain an agent for service of process as required 21                   by section 4008 of this title; or

1           (C) deliver for filing a statement of change under section 4009 of this 2 title within 30 days after a change has occurred in the name or address of the 3 agent; or

4           (2) the Commissioner of Taxes notifies the Secretary of State that a 5 foreign limited liability company has failed to make a return, to pay a tax, to 6 file a bond, or to do any other act required under 32 V.S.A. chapter 211.

7           (b)(1) To revoke a certificate of authority of a foreign limited liability
8 company, the Secretary of State shall file a notice of revocation and send a 9 copy to the company's agent for service of process in this State, or if the 11 company's designated office.

12           (2) A notice of revocation shall state:

16           (c) The authority of a foreign limited liability company to transact business 17 in this State shall cease on the effective date of the notice of revocation unless, 18 before that date, the company cures each ground for revocation stated in the 19 notice filed under subsection (b) of this section. If the company cures each 20 ground, the Secretary of State shall file a record so stating.

1        § 4118. CANCELLATION OF AUTHORITY

2            A foreign limited liability company may cancel its authority to transact
3        business in this State by filing a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of 4        State. Cancellation does not terminate the authority of the Secretary of State to 5        accept service of process on the company for claims arising out of the 6        transactions of business in this State.

7        § 4119. EFFECT OF FAILURE TO OBTAIN CERTIFICATE OF 10        may not maintain a proceeding or raise a counterclaim, cross-claim, or 11        affirmative defense in any court in this State until it obtains a certificate of 12        authority to transact business in this State.

13            (b) The failure of a foreign limited liability company to have a certificate of 14        authority to transact business in this State does not impair the validity of a 15        contract or act of the company or prevent the foreign limited liability company
16        from defending an action or proceeding in this State.

17            (c) A member or manager of a foreign limited liability company is not 18        liable for the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the company solely 19        because the company transacted business in this State without a certificate of 20        authority.

1        (d) If a foreign limited liability company transacts business in this State
2        without a certificate of authority, it appoints the Secretary of State as its agent 3        for service of process for claims arising out of the transaction of business in 4        this State.

5        § 4120. ACTION BY ATTORNEY GENERAL

17       subsection 4005(a) of this title; and

18           (3) complying with the requirements of this subchapter and paying the

3        organization all the following:

5        or outside the United States of America, that will control the internal 6        governance affairs of the company;

7            (2) the type of organization that will control how the foreign law limited 8        liability company is treated under the foreign law and all matters that are 9        required to be included in the constituent filing for that type of organization 10       under that foreign law;

11           (3) any variations or limitations on the applicability of the foreign law

17        company; and

18           (5) a designation of those classes of individuals or officers within the 19        chosen legal structure who shall have authority to act on behalf of the foreign 20        law limited liability company equivalent to the authority of managers under

2 of that authority.

3 (b) Any bylaws, agreements, or other statements of principles governing 4 the internal governance affairs of the foreign law limited liability company
5 addressed in the applicable foreign law but not required to be in the constituent 6 filing shall be set forth as part of, or in lieu of, the operating agreement
7 required by section 4003 of this title. The prohibitions on a waiver under 8 subsection 4003(b) shall not apply to foreign law limited liability companies.

9 § 4123. SCOPE OF DESIGNATED FOREIGN LAW

10 (a) In any disputes over the internal governance affairs of a foreign law 11 limited liability company, the designated foreign law or body of law shall be 12 applied by any court having jurisdiction over the parties as the binding

14 enforced that:

15 (1) is contrary to provisions of Vermont or United States law or public 16 policy;

17 (2) cause fraud or manifest injustice under Vermont or United 18 States law;

2           company required by this title.

3           (b) As used in this subchapter, “internal governance affairs” means the 4           relations among the limited liability company, its members, and managers.
5           Whether an issue is a matter of internal governance affairs of the company
6           shall be determined under Vermont law.

7           (c) If a court determines that the designated law does not address an 8           internal governance matter or addresses it in a manner that is unenforceable 9           pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, or a limitation or variation relating to 10           the issue is specified in the articles of organization, Vermont law shall apply to 11           the matter at issue.

12           (d) All the external affairs of the foreign law limited liability company shall 13           be governed by the general provisions of this chapter, the articles of 15           applicable Vermont and federal laws.

16           § 4124. JURISDICTION

17           (a) Vermont and other courts designated pursuant to section 4122 of this

19           affairs of a foreign law limited liability company.

20           (b) In adjudicating any dispute relating to the internal governance affairs of 21           a foreign law limited liability company, the court may rely on its own English

1 translation of the designated law and on testimony of experts, opinions of 2 counsel, advisory opinions, or declaratory or binding judgments, and other 3 appropriate evidence.

4 Subchapter 9. Actions by Members

5 § 4141. DIRECT ACTION BY MEMBER

6 (a) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, a member may maintain a 10 arising independently of the membership relationship.

11 (b) A member who maintains a direct action under this section must prove 12 an actual or threatened injury to the member that is not solely the result of an 13 injury suffered or threatened to be suffered by the limited liability company.

14 § 4132. DERIVATIVE ACTION

15 A member may maintain a derivative action to enforce a right of a limited 16 liability company if:

17 (1) the member first makes a demand on the other members in a
18 member-managed limited liability company, or the managers of a 19 manager-managed limited liability company, requesting that they cause the 20 company to bring an action to enforce the right, and the other members or the 21 managers do not bring the action within a reasonable time; or

1           (2) a demand under subsection (a) of this section would be futile.

2           § 4133. PROPER PLAINTIFF

7           occurred; or

8           (2) whose status as a member devolved on the person by operation of 9           law or pursuant to the terms of the operating agreement from a person that was 10          a member at the time of the transaction.

11          § 4134. PLEADING

12          In a derivative action , the complaint must state with particularity:

13          (1) the date and content of plaintiff’s demand and the response to the 14          demand by the other members or the managers; and 15          (2) why the demand should be excused as futile.

16          § 4135. SPECIAL LITIGATION COMMITTEE

17          (a)(1) If a limited liability company is named as or made a party in a 18          derivative proceeding, the company may appoint a special litigation committee 19          to investigate the claims asserted in the proceeding and determine whether 20          pursuing the action is in the best interests of the company.

1           (2) If the company appoints a special litigation committee, on motion by 2           the committee made in the name of the company, except for good cause 3           shown, the court shall stay discovery for the time reasonably necessary to 4           permit the committee to make its investigation.

5           (3) This subsection shall not prevent the court from:

6           (A) enforcing a person's right to information under section 4033 of 7           this title; or

8           (B) granting extraordinary relief in the form of a temporary 9           restraining order or preliminary injunction.

10          (b) A special litigation committee shall be composed of one or more 11          disinterested and independent individuals, who may be members.

12          (c) A special litigation committee may be appointed:

13          (1) in a member-managed limited liability company:

14          (A) by the affirmative vote or consent of a majority of the members 15          not named as parties in the proceeding; or 16          (B) if all members are named as defendants or plaintiffs in the 17          proceeding, by a majority of the members named as defendants; or

18          (2) in a manager-managed limited liability company:

19          (A) by a majority of the managers not named as parties in the 20          proceeding; or

1           (B) if all managers are named as parties in the proceeding, by a
2           majority of the managers named as defendants.

3           (d) After appropriate investigation, a special litigation committee may 4           determine that it is in the best interests of the limited liability company that the 5           proceeding:

6           (1) continue under the control of the plaintiff;

7           (2) continue under the control of the committee;

8           (3) be settled on terms approved by the committee; or 9           (4) be dismissed.

10          (e)(1) After making a determination under subsection (d) of this section, a 11          special litigation committee shall file with the court a statement of its 12          determination and its report supporting its determination, and shall serve each 13          party with a copy of the determination and report.

14          (2) The court shall determine whether the members of the committee 15          were disinterested and independent and whether the committee conducted its 16          investigation and made its recommendation in good faith, independently, and 17          with reasonable care, with the committee having the burden of proof.

18          (3) If the court finds that the members of the committee were 19          disinterested and independent and that the committee acted in good faith, 20          independently, and with reasonable care, the court shall enforce the 21          determination of the committee.

1           (4) Otherwise, the court shall dissolve the stay of discovery entered 2           under subsection (a) of this section and allow the action to continue under the 3           control of the plaintiff.

4           § 4136. PROCEEDS AND EXPENSES

5           (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section:

6                   (1) any proceeds or other benefits of a derivative action, whether by 7                   judgment, compromise, or settlement, belong to the limited liability company 8                   and not to the plaintiff; and

9                   (2) if the plaintiff receives any proceeds, the plaintiff shall remit them 10                  immediately to the company.

11                  (b) If a derivative action is successful, in whole or in part, the court may 12                  award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney’s fees 13                  and costs, from the recovery of the limited liability company.

14                  (c) A derivative action on behalf of a limited liability company may not be

10 (1) by a domestic converting limited liability company, in accordance 11 with the organizational documents of the limited liability company, or, in the 12 absence of a provision governing approval of conversions, by all the members

20 become subject to personal liability by the affirmative vote or consent of fewer

15           § 4145. AMENDMENT OR ABANDONMENT OF PLAN OF

16           CONVERSION

17           (a) A plan of conversion of a domestic converting limited liability company 18           may be amended:

20           provide for the manner in which it may be amended; or

1           (2) by its managers or members in the manner provided in the plan of 2           conversion, but a member that was entitled to vote on or consent to approval of 3           the conversion is entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan
4           that will change:

5                   (A) the amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations, money,
6                   other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of 7                   the foregoing, to be received by any of the members of the converting 8                   company under the plan;

9                   (B) the public organizational documents, if any, or private 10                  organizational documents of the converted organization which will be in effect
11                  immediately after the conversion becomes effective, except for changes that do

13                  its governing law or organizational documents; or

14                  (C) any other terms or conditions of the plan, if the change would 15                  adversely affect the member in any material respect.

16           (b) A plan of conversion of a general or limited partnership may be 17           amended:

18                   (1) in the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan does not 19                   provide for the manner in which it may be amended; or

20                   (2) by its general partner or general partners in the manner provided in 21                   the plan, but a partner that was entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the

1 conversion is entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan that 2 will change:

3 (A) the amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations, money,
4 other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of 5 the foregoing, to be received by any of the partners of the converting company 6 under the plan;

7 (B) the public organizational documents, if any, or private
8 organizational documents of the converted organization which will be in effect
9 immediately after the conversion becomes effective, except for changes that do 10 not require approval of the interest holders of the converted organization under 11 its governing statute or governing documents; or

12 (C) any other terms or conditions of the plan, if the change would 13 adversely affect the partner in any material respect.

14 (c)(1) After a plan of conversion has been approved by a domestic 15 converting limited liability company and before a statement of conversion 16 becomes effective, the plan may be abandoned as provided in the plan.

17 (2) Unless prohibited by the plan, a domestic converting limited liability 18 company may abandon the plan in the same manner as the plan was approved.

19 (d)(1) If a plan of conversion is abandoned after a statement of conversion
20 has been delivered to the Secretary of State for filing and before the statement 21 becomes effective, a statement of abandonment, signed by the converting

1 organization, shall be delivered to the Secretary of State for filing before the 2 statement of conversion becomes effective.

3 (2) The statement of abandonment takes effect on filing, and the 4 conversion is abandoned and does not become effective.

5 (3) The statement of abandonment must contain:

6 (A) the name of the converting limited liability company;

7 (B) the date on which the statement of conversion was filed by the 8 Secretary of State; and 21 company, a statement that the plan of conversion was approved in accordance

1 with this subchapter, or, if the converting organization is a foreign 2 organization, a statement that the conversion was approved by the foreign 3 organization in accordance with the law of its jurisdiction of formation;

4 (4) if the converted organization is a domestic organization, its public 5 organizational documents, as an attachment; and

6 (5) if the converted organization is a foreign limited liability partnership, 7 its certificate of authority to do business in the State, as an attachment.

8 (c) In addition to the requirements of subsection (b) of this section, a 9 statement of conversion may contain any other provision not prohibited 10 by law.

11 (d) If the converted organization is a domestic organization, its public 12 organizational documents, if any, shall satisfy the requirements of the law of 13 this State, except that the public organizational documents do not need to be 14 signed.

15 (e)(1) A plan of conversion that is signed by a domestic converting limited 16 liability company and meets all the requirements of subsection (b) of this 17 section may be delivered to the Secretary of State for filing instead of a 18 statement of conversion and on filing has the same effect.

19 (2) If a plan of conversion is filed as provided in this subsection, 20 references in this subchapter to a statement of conversion refer to the plan of 21 conversion filed under this subsection.

1        (f)(1) If the converted organization is a domestic limited liability company, 2        the conversion becomes effective when the statement of conversion is 3        effective.

4        (2) In all other cases, the conversion becomes effective on the later of:

5                (A) the date and time provided by the governing statute of the 6        converted organization; or

7                (B) when the statement is effective.

8        § 4147. EFFECT OF CONVERSION

9        (a) When a conversion becomes effective:

10                (1) the converted organization is:

11                        (A) organized under and subject to the governing statute of the 12        converted organization; and

13                        (B) the same organization without interruption as the converting 14        organization;

15                (2) all property of the converting organization continues to be vested in 16        the converted organization without transfer, reversion, or impairment;

17                (3) all debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the converting 18        organization continue as debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the 19        converted organization;

1           (4) except as otherwise provided by law or the plan of conversion, all
2           the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and purposes of the converting 3           organization remain in the converted organization;

4           (5) the name of the converted organization may be substituted for the 5           name of the converting organization in any pending action or proceeding;

6           (6) the certificate of organization of the converted organization becomes 7           effective;

8           (7) the provisions of the operating agreement of the converted 9           organization which are to be in a record, if any, approved as part of the plan of 10          conversion become effective; and

11          (8) the interests in the converting organization are converted, and the 12          interest holders of the converting organization are entitled only to the rights 13          provided to them under the plan of conversion.

14          (b) Except as otherwise provided in the operating agreement of a domestic 15          converting limited liability company, the conversion does not give rise to any 16          rights that a member, manager, or third party would have upon a dissolution, 17          liquidation, or winding up of the converting organization.

18          (c) When a conversion becomes effective, a person that did not have 19          personal liability with respect to the converting organization and becomes 20          subject to personal liability with respect to a domestic organization as a result 21          of the conversion has personal liability only to the extent provided by the

1 governing statute of the organization and only for those debts, obligations, and 2 other liabilities that are incurred after the conversion becomes effective.

3 (d) When a conversion becomes effective, the personal liability of a person
4 that ceases to hold an interest in a domestic converting limited liability 5 company with respect to which the person had personal liability is subject to 6 the following rules:

7 (1) the conversion does not discharge any personal liability under this 8 title to the extent the personal liability was incurred before the conversion 9 became effective;

10 (2) the person does not have personal liability under this title for any 11 debt, obligation, or other liability that arises after the conversion becomes 12 effective;

13 (3) this title continues to apply to the release, collection, or discharge of 14 any personal liability preserved under subdivision (1) of this subsection as if 15 the conversion had not occurred; and

16 (4) the person has whatever rights of contribution from any other person 17 as are provided by this title, law other than this title, or the organizational 18 documents of the converting organization with respect to any personal liability 19 preserved under subdivision (1) of this subsection as if the conversion had not 20 occurred.

1       (e) When a conversion becomes effective, a foreign organization that is the 2       converted organization may be served with process in this State for the 3       collection and enforcement of any of its debts, obligations, and other liabilities 4       as provided in section 4010 of this title.

5       (f) If the converting organization is a registered foreign organization, its 6       registration to do business in this State is canceled when the conversion 7       becomes effective.

8       (g) A conversion does not require the organization to wind up its affairs 9       and does not constitute or cause the dissolution of the organization.

10       § 4148. MERGER OF ENTITIES

11       (a) A limited liability company may merge with one or more other 12       constituent organizations pursuant to this section, sections 4149 through 4151

7           (4) if the surviving organization is to be created by the merger, the 8           surviving organization's organizational documents that are proposed to be in a 9           record; and

11           amendments to be made by the merger to the surviving organization's 12           organizational documents that are, or are proposed to be, in a record.

13           § 4149. ACTION ON PLAN OF MERGER BY CONSTITUENT LIMITED

14                   LIABILITY COMPANY

15           (a) Subject to section 4156 of this title, a plan of merger shall be approved
16           in accordance with the organizational documents of the constituent limited 17           liability company, or, in the absence of a provision governing approval of 18           conversions, by all the members of the limited liability company entitled to 19           vote on or consent to any matter.

20           (b) Subject to section 4156 of this title and any contractual rights, after a 21           merger is approved, and at any time before the articles of merger are delivered

1 to the Secretary of State for filing under section 4146 of this title, a constituent 2 limited liability company may amend the plan or abandon the merger:

3 (1) as provided in the plan; or

5 was required to approve the plan.

6 § 4150. FILINGS REQUIRED FOR MERGER; EFFECTIVE DATE

9           (6) a statement as to each constituent organization that the merger was 10          approved as required by the organization's governing statute;

11          (7) if the surviving organization is a foreign organization not authorized
12          to transact business in this State, the street and mailing addresses of an office 13          that the Secretary of State may use for the purposes of subsection 4145(b) of 14          this title; and

15          (8) any additional information required by the governing statute of any 16          constituent organization.

18          merger for filing in the Office of the Secretary of State.

19          (d) A merger becomes effective under this subchapter:

19           (6) except as prohibited by other law, all of the rights, privileges,
20 immunities, powers, and purposes of each constituent organization that ceases
21 to exist vest in the surviving organization;

1           (7) except as otherwise provided in the plan of merger, the terms and 2           conditions of the plan of merger take effect; and

3           (8) except as otherwise agreed, if a constituent limited liability company

5           the purposes of subchapter 7 of this chapter;

6           (9) if the surviving organization is created by the merger:

7           (A) if it is a limited liability company, the certificate of organization

11          (10) if the surviving organization preexisted the merger, any 12          amendments provided for in the articles of merger for the organizational
