Major and Rick,

I'll need to respond to this email to the governor's office. I just need something to work with in writing. Can the both of you work on this and get back to me? Id like this off my plate this week.

Dear Brig Gen Heston,

We received the following constituent correspondence regarding the Vermont air show. Susan Allen thought you might have some ideas on how to respond here? See full correspondence below. The consitutent originally reached out to Chief del Pozo.

Her information is as follows: Lynn Ocone / 75 Bittersweet Ln, BTV/lynnocone@aol.com <Caution-mailto:lynnocone@aol.com > / (802) 660-4737

Thank you very much.

Jahala

I am writing to oppose future Air National Guard air shows. Please see my correspondence below with Brandon del Pozo. Thank you for listening.

~~~~~

Dear Lynn,

State and local elected officials plan and approve these shows. For example, the head of the VT Air Guard is appointed by the governor. While the police can't stop an air show, elected officials decide the fate of the next one.

Sincerely,

Brandon del Pozo

Chief of Police

Burlington, Vermont

Subject: Jet Noise

Thank you for your posting on FPF explaining the jet noise. I find the shows/rehearsals terribly disruptive, wasteful and polluting. It's so noisy I cannot conduct business on the phone, or even in person. Do Burlington VT residents have any say going forward? Please, reply here and post on FPF who residents can contact to have our voices heard.

Thank you.

Lynn Ocone
