Dear President-elect Tsai:

I wanted to congratulate you on your recent election victory, and wish you the best as you prepare to take office.

Your election is historic, and your win well-deserved. From this day forward, every young man and young woman in Taiwan can dream of being president one day. I've read a lot about you, and what strikes me most is your commitment to your fellow citizens and honest, straightforward leadership. The office of President is a unique one that's different in every country, but it's one that offers tremendous potential and opportunity. I have no doubt you will enjoy the challenge, and become a role model for many of your fellow citizens.

If I can be helpful to you in any way, please don't hesitate to get in touch. I enjoy working with your delegation here in the United States and look forward to many more years of partnership.

Again, congratulations!

Best regards,

Phil Scott
