I think that's exactly what we should plan for. If you would talk to Ann about that that would be great!

We don't expect Randy's language to pass, do we? Had a conversation with Richie. He is willing to work with Anne on the Temporary moratorium. He asked me to talk to Anne about that. The idea would be that when and if Randy's idea goes down, Rich would be ready to propose the two year moratorium concept. What do you think? Should I prepare Anne for that scenario?

Mary did your shop craft language on the two year moratorium, as discussed last week?
