Dear Nora:

I was saddened to hear about the passing of your father. I (and Rachel) offer our sincere condolences on your loss.

Having lost my father at a young age, I know some of what you and your family are going through. I hope it helps somewhat to know that your colleagues and friends in Vermont are keeping you in our thoughts. It's been a privilege working with you in the State House, in large part because of your work ethic, your positive attitude and your sincere commitment to Vermont.

Though I never met him, your father sounds like an honorable man; he served our country in the U.S. Army and worked for the State for many years. They say who we are as adults is shaped by how we were raised as children, and I feel confident in saying your father passed along a lot of those values we all appreciate in you today, and he must have been so proud of you. I hope these words will be a comfort to you.

Please take care of yourself and your family at this difficult time.

Sincerely,

Phil Scott
