Hey - got it. Talked with Julie earlier and she sent an email introduction for me to Cheryl - so hopefully something will come of that. And since she is talking to reeva at 3, maybe our 3:30 call will be more productive. I'm going to try to send out a sample agenda sometime today - hopefully before 3:30 call.

Totally flustering. I'll try to take as much of this off your plate as I can so people get used to working more closely with me.

Talk soon,
Jessica

Hey -

Is the plan to just cold email these people and ask them to talk to us for free in a week? I'm crafting an email right now... but just wanted to check.

I also reached out to some of my own networks in case anyone has child care policy expertise.

Lemme know...

Hi there...

Here is a short list of individuals/groups we could potentially reach out to. It wouldn't hurt to reach out to all of them.

The Future of Children – a collaboration between Princeton & the Brookings Institute
