

Without Universal School Meals: Students go hungry, lots of hassle, less federal funding

Cash registers instead of cooks.

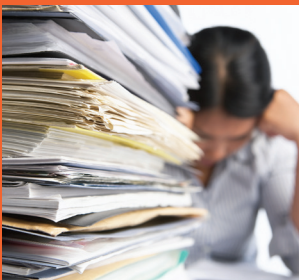

Collecting meal debt from families that can't pay.

Federal funds left in DC.

Hunger & stigma at school.

Application processors instead of cooks.

Teachers buying snacks for hungry kids.

Stomach aches & headaches from hunger.

Hungry students not learning and disrupting class.

With Universal School Meals: Students can learn, healthier meals, more federal funds

Cash registers out of cafeterias.

No more principals as bill collectors.

Millions more in federal funding.

More scratch cooking.

Less paperwork, more meals.

No more hungry kids in class.

Healthier kids.

Students are ready to learn.

Every student. Every meal. Every day.

Anore Horton | Executive Director | 802.231.1293 | ahorton@hungerfreevt.org

