MONTPELIER – Gov. Peter Shumlin will hold a number of press conferences next week. On Tuesday, the Governor will join with health care providers and others to detail year-one results from the Medicaid shared savings program, a key part of his efforts to bend the cost curve on health care spending by moving to a system that pays for quality of care, not quantity of care.

The Governor will be in Winooski on Wednesday to announce $2.37 million in state tax incentives to support 27 downtown and village center construction and rehabilitation projects.

Finally, the Governor will hold a press conference on Thursday to detail the results of a survey conducted by the Vermont Department of Labor on college students' perceptions of Vermont's job market and economy.

Gov. Peter Shumlin's public appearance schedule

MONTPELIER – The Emergency Board will meet on Monday to consider recommendations by Gov. Peter Shumlin for disbursements from the Vermont Enterprise Fund to create jobs and spur economic activity. Information on the Enterprise Fund award amounts and expected economic and job impacts will be available Monday. The first part of the meeting will be considered in Executive Session because the recommendations include proprietary business information. Additionally, one recommendation involves a Canadian company considering opening a facility in the United States. Vermont is in active negotiations with this company and disclosure of its identity could weaken the state's bargaining position. Should the recommended award for this company be adopted by the Emergency Board, funds will be contingent on the company deciding to locate in Vermont.

The Governor's full schedule for next week is copied below.

Gov. Peter Shumlin's public appearance schedule

MONTPELIER – Gov. Peter Shumlin will travel to Montreal next week to meet with leaders of the Quebec government and business community to discuss a variety of topics including increased opportunities for investment, trade, and job growth on both sides of the border. The Governor and Quebec Premier Phillippe Couillard will be on hand for the signing of a memorandum of understanding formalizing a new partnership between the Federation of Chambers of Commerce of Quebec (FCCQ) and the Lake Champlain Regional Chamber of Commerce's Vermont Quebec Enterprise Initiative (VQEI).

Increasing economic opportunities between Vermont and Quebec has been a priority for the Governor. In May, the Governor and legislative leaders announced $100,000 to further economic ties between Vermont and Quebec and attract Quebec companies to set up locations in Vermont. Last week, the Governor announced that the state is in negotiations with a Canadian Company looking to establish a new facility in the U.S.
