

“Shopping at Vermont’s local businesses and downtowns, especially during the holiday season, is like giving a gift to our State,” said Lt. Gov. Scott. “Those dollars help our communities and our neighbors, and ‘Made in Vermont’ gifts help spread our reputation for quality, locally made products around the country and the world.”

Lt Gov Phil Scott -- Statewide importance of buying local and supporting small businesses esp. during the holidays. Economics, tourism, etc.