All good with this? The Governor's portfolio reflects exactly what he is proposing for Vermont. He owns no coal or ExxonMobil stocks.

Hey Scott,

Does the governor still own fossil fuel stocks? Coal? Oil? Anything else on the Fossil Free Index?

I draw your attention to this column from a little over a year ago:

When he first ran for governor in 2010, Shumlin disclosed that more than $462,000 of his $10.7 million in assets was invested in seven major oil and gas companies. All seven are featured in Fossil Free Indexes' list of the 200 publicly traded companies with the largest reserves of coal, oil and gas. They include Pioneer Natural Resources ($161,896), Occidental Petroleum Corporation ($146,160) and Cabot Oil & Gas ($45,936).

My deadline is this afternoon.

Thanks,
Paul
