SHORT FORM

Introduced by Representatives Burrows of West Windsor, Beck of St.

Johnsbury, Patt of Worcester, Arrison of Weathersfield,

Masland of Thetford, and White of Bethel

Referred to Committee on

Date:

Subject: Education; use of public tuition; religious schools

Statement of purpose of bill as introduced: This bill proposes to require the State Board of Education to, by rule, define what a religious school is and set out the standards under the Chittenden v. Department of Education, 169 Vt.

310 (1999) case for how a religious school can demonstrate that it is not using public tuition for religious instruction.

An act relating to establishing standards for how a religious school can demonstrate that it is not using public tuition for religious instruction

It is hereby enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Vermont:
