

The Process

The planned process is a simple proven concept of drying the incoming biomass with the available waste heat of the plant, then feeding it to the pyrolysis/gasification module.

- 1 –low temperature dryer that utilizes waste heat from the power plant
- 2 - gasifier to produce biochar and feed syngas to the existing boilers for enhanced combustion

