Hello Darren and good to meet you Laura,

We would be happy to find a time to speak with you about our thoughts, or answer any questions you have.

Depending on the timing I would bring onto the call either our CEO Matt Patsky, who did a talk with Eric Becker and Bill McKibben, in VT about this subject in the later part of 2015; or Will Lana, the head of our California office, who worked closely on California's decision to divest.

Please let me know what works for you, but we are available on Monday between noonET and 2:30pmET (Will and I are based on the west coast).

Have a good weekend,

Jonas

Hello Darren,

I work at Trillium Asset Management which has worked with a number of institutions that have successfully divested from fossil fuels, including Sterling College.

Elizabeth Courtney, my mother, suggested I reach out to you to offer to speak about divestment and to share our expertise.

Through our work with Bill McKibben and others we have put together a few white papers that may be of interest:

If there is a time in the next week or so that is convenient for you, I would be happy to chat about this further.

Best,

Jonas
