

Vermont Department of Corrections: Data & Reports Published on Website

Below are the data and reports that are publicly available on the DOC website. Most of these are updated regularly. Each title of reports is hyperlinked to the appropriate page in which they are found on the DOC's website.

COVID-19 INFORMATION PAGE: Provides testing numbers for incarcerated individuals and staff; incarcerated individuals testing by race; COVID protocols, memos, important information

Reports and Data

Population Data:

- Daily Population Report: includes counts of incarcerated individuals at correctional facilities by booking status and sex
- Population Characteristics Report: point-in-time analyses of the incarcerated population including crime, demographic, and facility breakdowns

Release Reports:

- Release Report: includes longitudinal analyses of incarcerated individuals who were released from corrections
- Minimum Release Report: point-in-time analyses regarding minimum release information for incarcerated individuals, including data for those held past minimum release

Special Topics:

- Cross Topic Reports: detailed information from the Population Characteristics, Violent Crime, and Minimum Release reports across the following topics, separately:
  - Gender
  - Race
  - Serious Functional Impairment (SFI)-Designation
- Violent Crime Reports: point-in-time analyses regarding listed crime information (as a proxy for crimes that are violent in nature) for incarcerated individuals

COVID 19 Risk Factors Reports: The CDC has outlined people who are at higher risk for developing a severe illness if they contract COVID-19. The following reports provide these COVID risk factor information for Vermont in-state incarcerated individuals. NOTE: these reports have not been updated since June 2020.

- COVID19 Risk Factors
- COVID19 Risk Factors Additional