Lt. Governor Molly Gray to Virtually Welcome Franklin Northeast Supervisory Union Students to the State House for “Lt. Governor for a Day” Program

Who: Lt. Governor Molly Gray to welcome Franklin Northeast Supervisory Union 3rd and 4th graders taught by Ms. Emma Holcomb to the Vermont State House for the second session of her “Lt. Governor for a Day” program. Franklin Senator Corey Parent is expected to join for a portion of the program.

What: The virtual bi-weekly “Lt. Governor for a Day” program is hosted every other Wednesday to engage Vermont students and classrooms in state government. The session begins with a Q&A with the Lt. Governor, followed by an introduction to local Senators and a behind-the-scenes look into the inner workings of the Office and the Vermont State House. Students will also observe the virtual proceedings of the Vermont Senate over which the Lt. Governor presides.

Where: Zoom, see notes for details.

When: 12:15-1:45pm, March 10, 2021.

Notes: Media wishing to attend some or all of the program via Zoom, should RSVP to Hazel Brewster. Arrangements will be made on a classroom-by-classroom basis – accounting for teacher preferences – to observe the program. Media availability can be arranged for immediately following the program.
