Subject: Deployment

This weekend we will wish a small group of Army Aviators and best wishes on their deployment to the Horn of Africa in support of AFRICOM and will return to Vermont in the summer of 2016. This group of 5 aviators will be flying non-combat missions in that area of responsibility. This group will depart early Saturday morning and I will hand them a Green Mountain Boy flag. There is no official formal ceremony. I have listed the soldiers names below along with their phone number if your office would like to call them and wish them good luck on the deployment. The personal information is sensitive so I would ask to not share outside this email. If you have questions or comments please let me know.
Thanks and Happy Thanksgiving to all;
