Dear Sheila:

Congratulations on your election victory!

One of the best parts of my role as Lt. Governor is welcoming new faces into the State House. I enjoy the diversity of our citizen legislature, and I always learn something new from each "freshman" legislator.

This session, I have the honor of welcoming 5 new Senators and 22 new House members. I have a tradition of meeting with each new legislator, one-on-one, at the start of the session, so you can expect an e-mail from my chief of staff, Nancy Driscoll, to set up a 15-minute chat. You can also feel free to stop in and introduce yourself to Nancy, and she'll schedule that meeting when it best fits your schedule.

Vermonters are depending on us to implement common-sense policies that take us all forward toward peace, prosperity and productivity. As Lieutenant Governor, I will be looking for opportunities to help the Legislature and the Administration accomplish those goals. If I can ever be a resource or a sounding board, please feel free to call on me. I don't pretend to have all of the answers, but my door will always be open to you and to your constituents.

I look forward to seeing you in January. In the meantime, I wish you a relaxing holiday season!

Sincerely,
