

S. 9, Sec. 8
January 28, 2015

33 V.S.A. § 4921	Current Law	S.9	DCF proposal
(c)	Upon request, redacted investigation file shall be disclosed to parents, foster parents, and alleged abuser.	Redacted investigation file shall be disclosed to parents, foster parents, and alleged abuser.	Current law.
(d)	Upon request, records shall be disclosed to the court, parties to a court proceeding, law enforcement, attorneys, other state agencies, and the Probate Division.	Department records shall be disclosed to court, parties to court proceeding, law enforcement, attorneys, other State agencies, the Child Protection Advocate, and the Probate Division.	Department records shall be disclosed to court, parties to court proceeding, law enforcement, and attorneys.
(e)	Upon request, relevant Department records may be disclosed to service providers and other governmental entities. Relevancy determinations made by DCF.	Upon request, Department records shall be disclosed to service providers, health care providers, educators, foster care givers, mandated reporters, and other governmental entities.	Upon request, Department records shall be disclosed to other state agencies, Child Protection Advocate, Probate Division, service providers, health care providers, educators, foster care givers, mandated reporters, and other governmental entities. Additional provisions: DCF may withhold information that could compromise the safety of the reporter, child or family. DCF may provide other records related to its child protection activities for the child. Other individuals authorized to receive records may share those records among other individuals authorized to receive records.

S. 9, Sec. 8
January 28, 2015