Hi James,
Reading this over it is quite comprehensive. Though I would reiterate our phone conversation the equipment cost stated vs. the list Dr. Conti drafted. I would have to speak with she and Chris Cole, perhaps total equipment needs falls across 2 FFY's. Also the total cost of 2 chemists looks slightly low to me. However, I see nothing problematic she syncing finite numbers. I'll be around the statehouse later if you wish to discuss in person.

Thank you,
Joe

Hi Joe,

The attached document has a summary of what gov highway safety is going to spend on impaired driving. Can you cross reference with your asks for marijuana and see if there is any overlap.

Thanks,

JP
