
This act summary is provided for the convenience of the public and members of the General Assembly. It is intended to provide a general summary of the act and may not be exhaustive. It has been prepared by the staff of the Office of Legislative Counsel without input from members of the General Assembly. It is not intended to aid in the interpretation of legislation or to serve as a source of legislative intent.

Act No. 136 (H.477). Labor; employment practices; leave; alleged crime victims

An act relating to leave for crime victims

This act corrects an error in the language of Vermont's crime victim's leave statute that made some alleged victims of a crime ineligible for job-protected leave to attend a related criminal proceeding. This act also permits the immediate family members of an alleged victim of a violent crime to attend a related criminal proceeding.

Effective Date: May 24, 2022