

You're having Californians testify on S.141. National money is being poured in to pass this.

This past weekend, the NRA had their Annual Meeting in Nashville, TN. Everytown and Momsdemand staged counter demonstrations. There were nearly 80,000 people at the NRA meeting. There were about 150 people (yes, that's simply one hundred fifty) at the combined Everytown/Momsdemand rally.

On Feb 10, 2015 there was a public hearing for S.31. The crowd in orange far out numbered the crowd in green.

Gun Owners of VT is a true grassroots organization with everybody volunteering their service. GunSenseVT has been shown to not be grassroots.

So, the question arises, who does the Vermont legislature represent? The people of Vermont or national interests? Vermonters thought you were elected to represent them.

Represent VT, not CA or NY. Vote NO on S.141 Victoria Heisner Benson, VT
