Document being generated (and will not be final until tomorrow). If you can coordinate with the other offices once I send it to you David, that'd be most appreciated. Oral request for declaration has been made.

Let us know when you have a copy of the letter, and we'll send a delegation letter of support. Have you been in touch with the other offices? If not, I'm happy to coordinate.

David – the governor did decide to ask for a presidential declaration. So much for my influence on this matter!
